

The Model of a Student Athlete

There's more to the Florida State softball team than what you see on the field.

The Seminoles define student-athlete by excelling in the classroom and through their community service work.

Visor or no Visor?

	Billie Anne Guzy: No visor They aren't really my style.
	Yuruby Alcantara: Sometimes It depends on my mood before the game.
	Kayla Collins: No visor Whenever I am pitching I always end up knocking it off my head.
	Melissa May: Yes It keeps sweat from dripping in my eyes and keeps my bangs out of my face.
	Nadyn Petrusich: No visor I think I look better in visor.
	Michelle Snyder: Visor It keeps the sun out of my eyes and hair out of my face.
	Kim Petrusich: No visor I had an argument with a coach about a visor one time and I haven't worn one since.
	Natasha Jacobs: I have worn a visor since I started playing softball. I think that is one of a coach's best ideas that it is a way to block out the sun because I wear my visor even during night games.
	Tiffany McDonald: No visor It flies off when I pitch.
	Carly Brinker: Yes Keeps sun out of my eyes, vision and sunglasses, all the help I can get.
	Kim Huffer: No visor because I feel it limits my vision.
	Whitney Buckmon: Depends on the day. You might have a visor, but if it's hot, you're I'll stick with sunglasses.
	Melissa Wood: No visor, I wear a beanie.
