1994 Year In Review

The opening meeting of the 1994 Florida State volleyball team may have gone something like this, "Welcome to Florida State, you wanted top competition and power volleyball, you've got it." FSU played its toughest schedule ever in 1994 and had only four upperclassmen on the roster. Head Coach Cecile Reynaud's squad handled it all as expected of a volleyball history, Luiza Ramos led the young Seminoles both offensively and defensively last season. Ramos tied or broke four individual season records. She recorded 579 kills in 1994 tying Maggie Philgence's record, her 1,402 attempts and 4.87 kills per game both set new single season marks. On the defensive end, Ramos' 507 digs shattered the previous season record of 460.

Nothing like easing into the season, Florida State

"FSU played its toughest schedule ever in 1994 and had only four upperclassmen on the roster."

Florida State team...with a winning season. The 1994 season may not go down as the winningest in history with a 17-16 showing, but considering the opponents they faced, the year can be considered nothing short of sweet success.

One of the greatest all around players in FSU hosted the Volleyball Monthly Invitational in the early weeks which brought perennial powers like UCLA and Penn State to Tully Gymnasium. Although the team could not pull out a victory, these challenging games prepared the young 'Noles for the conference schedule ahead.

Rookies Maureen McCarthy and Susan Johnson both made quite an impact in 1994.

Making a tough schedule tougher the Tribe headed down to Gainesville for the first of a home and home series with the Gators. Florida State lost the match before the largest crowd of the season with close to 4,000 screaming Gators on hand. But those fans had little to scream about come Halloween.

On October 31, Florida State handed the Gators its first and only three game loss of the season. Florida State topped Florida 15-9, 15-13, 16-14 in Tallahassee.

FSU's non-conference schedule also brought Notre Dame south to Tallahassee. The saying, "There's no place like home," rang true once again as the Seminoles handed the then 12th ranked Fighting Irish a 3-1 loss. (15-10, 8-15, 17-15, 15-12)

In Atlantic Coast Conference competition, Florida State finished the regular season with an even 7-7 record with sweeps of North Carolina State and Virginia. FSU entered the conference tournament seeded fifth and managed to pull off the only upset of the weekend taking its opening round match from the hands of the fourth seed Maryland. FSU's championship chances were taken in the semi-finals from the eventual champion Duke Blue Devils.

Individual play did not go unnoticed as many players earned all-tournament honors throughout the season. Ramos and Deanna Bosschaert were named to the All-Tournament team at the Minnesota Tournament and the Georgia Holiday Classic. Ramos was also named to the Volleyball Monthly Invitational Tournament team, the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team, the ACC All-Tournament team and the AVCA First Team All-South Region.

The emergence of rookie Maureen McCarthy as a setter caught some attention as well. McCarthy was named to the ACC All-Freshman team, while also taking home ACC Rookie of the Week honors (10/31) during the season.

Senior middle hitter Adria Ciraco came into her own for her final season recording career high numbers all around. Ciraco was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Week (10/10) for her performances in the sweep of North Carolina State.

Bosschaert and Ramos will both go down in the Florida State record books as two of the most outstanding outside hitters in school history. Both recorded over 1,000 career kills and digs in their careers. Ramos also has rewritten many of FSU record's including a few of her own. With the conclusion of the 1994 season, here is how her FSU career ranked: 2nd in Kill Attempts, 2nd in kills, 2nd in service aces, and 1st in digs. For the season Ramos tied the kill record, leads in kill attempts, 1st in kills per game, 7th in aces, and 1st in digs.

Bosschaert's name will be etched in the record books as well. She ranks 3rd for career records in kill attempts, service aces, 4th for career kills and 5th for career digs. ★

The 1994 season saw FSU hand the Gators their only three-game loss of the season.
