2008 FSU VOLLEYBALL MEDIA GUIDE

2008 OUTLOOK

THE 2008 FLORIDA STATE VOLLEYBALL SEASON BRINGS IN A NEW FACE AT THE HELM OF THE PRO-GRAM, HEAD COACH CHRIS POOLE. POOLE JOINS THE SEMINOLE STAFF AFTER 14 VERY SUCCESSFUL SEASONS LEADING THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS LADY'BACKS TO 11 SEC WESTERN DIVISION TITLES AND NINE NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES.

'n 21 years of coaching, Poole has garnered a 550-230 record and received seven conference Coach of the Year awards.

"It's a wonderful feeling," Poole said. "I'm so excited to become a Seminole. I have always loved building programs and at three different universities I have been able to do that. At Florida State, I see a program that already has a good foundation and has the support of the new administration. I think the community is really excited about seeing the volleyball program climb again and for me, that's just a great situation to go into."

THE SCHEDULE...

The Seminoles start the season on August 29 as they host the FSU Invitational and welcome cross-town rival Florida A&M along with Bowling Green and Stetson. This is the first time since the 2002 season that FSU and FAMU will face-off on the court. The Rattlers are a strong competitor in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and took the league title in 2007. The Noles dominate the series with FAMU 19-0.

FSU will also host the Seminole Tri-Tournament on September 5-7 with North Florida and South Dakota State before traveling to Dayton, Ohio, for Wright State's Raider Challenge. The Garnet and Gold will take on Wright State and Niagara for the first time in program history and will look to maintain its flawless 4-0 record against Morehead State on September 12-13.

This year will also be a time for some rematches against a few top-ranked ACC opponents, Duke and Clemson, as well as in-state rivals the Florida Gators who travel to Seminole territory on September

MATCHES TO LOOKOUT FOR:

......Florida A&M in Tully Gym September 8Florida Gators in Tallahassee, Fla. September 26Duke Blue Devils in Durham, N.C. November 2..... Duke Blue Devils in Tallahassee, Fla.

JUNIOR BRIANNA BARRY ON THE SCHEDULE

"I think our schedule this year is more challenging than last season because we're on the road for most of September and the first weekend in October. It's going to be a little intense. But I'm excited for Long Beach State to come here this year and I'm obviously excited to play Florida in Tully Gvm."

SENIOR ASHLEE MOON ON THE SPRING SEASON

"Our spring was amazing. As a team we grew so much on and off the court. We worked through a lot of mental bumps that held us up last fall, so that's our biggest success beyond winning the FSU and College of Charleston tournaments. I feel along with that, we've grown so much over the summer and will carry that into this season.

THE 2008 FRESHMAN CLASS...

The 2008 season brings in five newcomers: Rachael Morgan, Drew Dudley, Alliya Drzewiecki, Courtney Zuber and Abby Niekamp.

Leading the new class this year will be Alliya Drzewiecki and Rachael Morgan in the outside hitter position and Abby Niekamp at middle blocker. Drzewiecki (Toledo, Ohio) was a member of the USA Junior National Team for three years and set the Ohio state record for career kills with 997 in 2007.

Morgan, a native of Tauranga, New Zealand, was the 2007 Australian Nationals MVP and placed ninth at the World Beach Volleyball Competition in Poland that same year. Niekamp, a 6'1" middle blocker hailing from Celina, Ohio, set school records in six categories and was the Player of the Year for her district in 2007.

2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

BARRY ON THE NEWCOMERS

"I think a big key for the new class is Abby being here for the spring. I think she's going to be a good leader for the freshman class because she's gotten her feet wet and has the experience from playing college ball with us during the spring season.

Alliya, Rachel and Courtney are also very strong additions. We've seen them play a few times over the summer so I'm really excited to see how they're going to grow as collegiate volleyball players."

Nikki Baker

SETTERS...

- Junior Nikki Baker is once again the lone veteran at the setter position in 2008
- Baker started 19 matches as a sophomore and averaged 11.19 assists per game

With the departure of sophomore Lauren Rosenthal, junior Nikki Baker will control the setter position in 2008. Baker showed improvement last season as she averaged 11.19 assists per game and contributed 28 kills for the Seminoles.

MOON ON BAKER

"Baker loves being "it." She's going to love being the only setter on the team. Of course we worry about her staying healthy this season, but from a mental standpoint she is going to be just fine. She loves knowing that she has to perform, but at the same time she knows she has a big task in front of her and that she may have an off day. If that happens we all know we must come together as a team to work through it."

BARRY ON BAKER

"Throughout the spring and summer, Nikki has matured a lot which is good for us. She really has that capacity to lead us this year, so I'm excited to see how we can respond to what Nikki does for us on the court and how we can grow with her."

MIDDLE BLOCKERS...

- The middle blockers look to be a powerhouse position in 2008
- Brianna Barry will lead the middles in her junior season
- Barry topped the team in 2007 with 97 total blocks
- Newcomer Abby Niekamp joins veterans Jordana Price and Lauren Young in the front row in 2008

2008 OUTLOOK

All four Seminoles in the middle blocker position have experience playing at the collegiate level. Junior Brianna Barry was a starter in both her freshman and sophomore years and will lead the position this year. Both Lauren Young and Jordana Price saw action on the court last season and newcomer Abby Niekamp got her feet wet playing in the spring season.

BARRY ON LEADING HER POSITION

"As middles, we've improved a lot from spring into summer and now coming into the fall. I feel that I am taking on the leader role with the middle blockers because I've been here the longest. Lauren Young didn't play much her freshman year because of injury, Jordana came in last year and Abby is new, so I'm excited to take on the responsibility of leading them."

2008 OUTLOOK

Lauren Richardson

MOON ON THE MIDDLE BLOCKERS

"I'm really excited to see Jordana, who is amazing off of one foot, on the right side since we lost Mira to a redshirt. I look forward to seeing her attack from back there and then Lauren Young is also a great blocker, so I'm eager to play defense behind them."

OUTSIDE HITTERS...

- The outside hitter position is short Mira Djuric this season due to a probable redshirt
- A very young position for FSU with two sophomores and two freshmen in the front row
- Look for sophomore Lauren Richardson to take on the leadership role in 2008

With top hitter Makini Thompson graduated and top returner Mira Djuric taking a medical redhirt in 2008, the outside hitter position is full of fresh faces with two sophomores (Lauren Richardson and Stephanie Neville) who saw action on the court last year and two top freshmen recruits, Alliya Drzewiecki and Rachael Morgan.

MOON ON THE OUTSIDE HITTERS

"I believe Lauren Richardson will take on a leadership role not only in the outside hitter position, but for the whole team both on and off the court. She's got great ball control all the way around and she stepped up and played all around in the spring and did a great job. Stephanie Neville also has a year of experience and if there is a hitter that can get around her, then they must be pretty amazing."

BARRY ON THE OUTSIDE HITTERS

"With Stephanie and Lauren having experience, I think they're going to be the two to look out for this season. With the addition of Rachael and Alliya, both very tall girls, we're going to have a pretty tall front row and I'm excited to get to work with the outsides and the right sides to set up bigger blocks."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS...

- Senior Ashlee Moon will lead the defensive specialists this season
- Sophomores Jenna Romanelli and Taylor Wilson and freshman Drew Dudley all bring collegiate playing experience

MOON ON LEADING IN THE DS POSITION...

"I don't have a problem leading my position or the team. Whatever is needed of me, I'm going to do. I'm just looking forward to the opportunity. It's good to have Taylor, Jenna and Drew in the defensive specialist position with some experience. I think we definitely improved a lot on our ball control in the spring and I hope that carries over into the fall and we are able to see results from it."

BARRY ON THE DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

"I think Ashley is the one that lights the fire under us. She is going to be the one to help us through the matches, much like Summer [Weissing] was last year. I think the DS position is going to be a giant chunk of our team this year."

Ashlee Moon
