Support Your Olympic Teams

Dear Friend of Athletics:

This is Olympic year. The United States will be represented at the XVI Olympiad in Melbourne, Australia, November 22 - December 8, 1956.

Our U. S. Olympic Teams urgently need your help now. You and other sports-loving Americans like you are the sole source of funds with which to finance the long trip to Australia. Our participation in the Olympic Games has never depended on government support in this country — but instead on the interest and generosity of the sports-loving American public.

We are grateful for your generous support of Olympic Fund drives in the past. We feel certain you will want to share with millions of other sportsminded Americans, in a nation-wide effort to raise the funds necessary to finance our Olympic teams. We invite you at this time to place your contributions in the containers as they are circulated throughout the stadium by members of the Village Vamps, an F. S. U. Student organization.

Or, if you prefer, write a check in the amount you wish payable to the U. S. Olympic Committee, and mail it to the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Howard G. Danford Director of Physical Education and Athletics

For You Dad, It's FSU-Furman

". . . a greatly underrated Furman Purple Hurricane" fought powerful South Carolina right down to the wire today before falling, 13-6.

That, in so many words, is the story told in the Sunday papers last week after ambitious Furman battled the heavily-favored Gamecocks to a near standoff.

And only the day before the papers were humming like a funeral hymn the tale of Miami's crushing 20-7 triumph over Florida State's Seminoles.

Those two games cast an odd light on this afternoon's FSU-Furman contest.

Two weeks ago, Florida State — as was South Carolina — would probably have been a big favorite to win this one. Today, however, the Seminoles are expected to just slip by.

The psychological side might mean a lot, also.

Furman is rising, and after giving the Gamecocks such a rough time they're pointing for Florida State as a chance to jump up and win today.

And, doubtless, the Seminoles come on the field today a little red-faced and still bewildered. Whether they'll come romping back or remain discouraged, we'll know in a couple of hours.

Anyway, Dad, it's for you.

THE SEMINOLE FOOTBALL NETWORK

Florida State University's football contests are carried to every part of the state this year by the ever-growing voice of the Seminole Football Network.

Entering its fourth year, the network now boasts a total of 12 stations located throughout Florida. (See the listings below.)

Again, the veteran trio of Bill Snyder, Ben Letson and Jim Kirk are handling the mikeside duties for the network. They've been greatly responsible for the growth and success of the broadcasts.

Snyder, of WPDQ in Jacksonville, is the playby-play man. He began his professional career by working the games of the old professional baseball club, the St. Louis Browns.

Kirk does the color. As sports director of station WMOP in Ocala, he's been with the network from its beginning.

Letson, owner and manager of WCNH in Quincy, engineers the broadcasts.

THE MARCHING CHIEFS

HOMECOMING, 1955

Manley Whitcomb will direct Florida State's Marching Chiefs, hailed by Atlanta newspapers as the best university marching group in the south, in at least seven halftime performances this year.

Shows are planned for all home games— Ohio University, Virginia Tech, Wake Forest, Furman and Mississippi Southern — and it's likely the band will perform at Philadelphia October 27 and Miami November 2.

FSU has in Whitcomb one of the nation's foremost masters of band music. He came to Florida State in 1953 following a record 17 years at Ohio State where he led the famous Buckeye band to national recognition.

Since coming to FSU Whitcomb has developed the 128-piece Marching Chiefs into one of the most outstanding musical organizations of its kind in the nation.

At Ohio State he directed the university band in its famous westward jaunt to the Rose Bowl in 1950. Whitcomb has appeared as lecturer, guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator in 12 states. He saw service as a combat infrantryman in World War II and was twice awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service in combat in France.

The Marching Chiefs, which includes 180 personnel, is truly an all-southern band due to its appearances throughout the south and its predominantly all-southern personnel. The Marching Chiefs have appeared in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas with a possibility of adding Pennsylvania to the list this year.

Whitcomb, also a music professor, received Bachelor of Music and Masters degrees from Northwestern University. He's a native of Mellon, Wisconsin.

Band Day at Florida State, planned October 6 this year, is one of the highlights of the Marching Chiefs' spectacular shows because it brings together some of the finest high school bands in Florida, Georgia and Alabama.

Band Day was first inaugurated at FSU in 1951 and it has grown from some 13 bands to over 30. This will be the sixth annual edition of the event and promises to top all the rest.
