JOHN BRIDGERS
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FSU

John Bridgers brought many years of administrative and coaching experience with him when he assumed Florida State's Athletic Directorship in the spring of 1973.

A veteran coach in both collegiate and pro ranks, Bridgers came to the Seminoles from South Carolina where he served as an associate to head coach and Athletic Director Paul Dietzel.

"Florida State has one of the nation's finest all-around athletic programs," said Bridgers. "It is our aim to see that it maintains its outstanding reputation and continues to move up among the country's top teams in all sports."

A veteran of World War II and Korea, Bridgers received his Bachelor of Science degree from Auburn University in 1947. Following his graduation, he continued at Auburn as an instructor of economics.

In 1957, he joined the staff of the Baltimore Colts and was a coach on the 1958 club which defeated the New York Giants, 23-17, in the now famous "sudden death" game.

He moved to Baylor in 1959 and for 10 years held the Athletic Director and head football coach positions with the Bears. During this time he led the Bears to three bowl games and the third best won-loss record in the Southwest Conference behind Texas and Arkansas.

When Florida State set out to find a new coach following the 1972 season, the Seminoles knew they would have to find an extraordinary person.

The "someone" they picked was Darrell Mudra who held the reputation of coming in and turning programs around, a point that was noted immediately.

The 45-year-old Omaha, Neb., native came to Florida State from Western Illinois with extremely high recommendations.

Coach Mudra's record speaks for itself. He has turned five losers into big winners. In 16 years of college coaching, the soft-spoken educator has recorded 107 victories against 42 losses and two ties.

He was an assistant coach at Huron (S.D.) and Colorado State before becoming head coach at Adams State, Alamosa, Colo., in 1959. The previous season Adams State had gone 1-9 but in Mudra's first year the Colorado school gained eight victories against one loss. In four seasons there, Mudra-coached teams never lost more than two games in a single year and he led the Indians to a bowl game.

He later went to the University of Arizona where it took two seasons to turn its program around.

The second year he directed the Wildcats to an 8-3 record and a spot in the Sun Bowl.
