NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH

2011 Champs Sports Bowl opponent

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

Notre Dame began the year 0-2 under second-year head coach Brian Kelly. The Fighting Irish would turn things around quickly, however, winning their next five games, including one over a ranked Michigan State team.

The Irish were 0-3 against their main rivals Michigan, Southern California and Stanford on their way to an 8-4 overall record.

Kelly's teams are known for offense, and this year's team did not disappoint, racking up more than 5,000 yards of total offense.

Led by quarterback Tommy Rees and running back Cierre Wood, the Irish averaged 424 yards per game.

Wood rushed for more than 1,100 yards on 199 attempts, totaling nine touchdowns. Rees completed 65 percent of his passes for more than 2,700 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Notre Dame is a balanced team and also relies on future pro wide receiver Michael Floyd. Floyd caught 95 passes for 1,106 yards and eight touchdowns.

The defense is led by linebacker Manti Te'o. He had 111 total tackles this season, including a team-leading 4½ sacks.

The Irish allowed 349.2 yards per game, including 147 yards rushing per game. Senior cornerback Robert Blanton is second on the team with eight tackles-for-loss.

The Irish special teams are solid, led by kicker David Ruffer and punter Ben Turk. Ruffer made 66 percent of his kicks this season, with a long of 52 yards. Turk averaged 40.2 yards per punt, including five over 50 yards.

Manti Te'o is one of four finalists for the Lott IMPACT Trophy (defensive player who has had the biggest impact on his team) and one of six finalists for the Butkus Award (top linebacker).

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

SEPTEMBER 3 No. 5 Florida State Seminoles 34, Louisiana-Monroe Warhawks 0

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Florida State opened up the much-anticipated 2011 season with a shutout of the Warhawks, 34-0.

Quarterback EJ Manuel spread the ball around, finding nine different receivers while completing 22 of his 34 passes. He finished with 252 yards passing, two touchdowns and 22 yards rushing.

The defense was nearly perfect, limiting ULM to just 191 yards. The Warhawks couldn't register 100 yards either rushing or passing (99 rushing and 92 receiving yards).

Greg Dent caught a 50-yard touchdown pass in the win over Louisiana-Monroe.

SEPTEMBER 10 No. 5 Florida State Seminoles 62, Charleston Southern Buccaneers 10

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Florida State wasted little time in dispatching the Buccaneers.

The Seminole offense racked up 647 yards on offense, including 170 yards rushing and 477 yards passing.

Both quarterbacks saw action, with EJ Manuel completing four touchdown passes. Backup Clint Trickett threw for 148 yards and two touchdown passes, connecting with his soon-to-be-favorite target in true freshman Rashad Greene.

This was a good tune-up for the next week's huge rematch with No. 1 Oklahoma.

Christian Green caught two passes for 63 yards against Charleston Southern.

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

SEPTEMBER 17 No. 1 Oklahoma Sooners 23, No. 5 Florida State Seminoles 13

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — With ESPN's College Gameday in town for the first time in nearly eight years, Tallahassee was the center of the college football world this night.

The 'Noles played incredibly hard in front of a raucous crowd in a sold-out Doak Campbell Stadium. This game saw starting quarterback EJ Manuel get knocked out of the game with a shoulder separation. Backup Clint Trickett played admirably, including his hitting Rashad Greene for a 56-yard touchdown pass that tied the game at 13. It was the loudest the stadium had been in years.

Eventually the Sooners would pull away and go on to defeat the Noles. However, it showed that the 'Noles could compete with the best teams in the country.

Rashad Greene's 56-yard touchdown reception brought the Doak Campbell Stadium crowd to its feet.

SEPTEMBER 24 No. 21 Clemson Tigers 35, No. 11 Florida State Seminoles 30

CLEMSON, S.C. — Death Valley continued to be a problem for the Noles.

With starting quarterback EJ Manuel out with an injury, backup Clint Trickett got the nod and played a good game, finishing 24-for-38 passing with 336 yards and three touchdowns.

In a game where the defense could not get off the field on third down, the Tigers would ultimately take advantage of penalties and questionable calls to hold on for the five-point victory.

Backup quarterback Clint Trickett passed for 336 yards and three touchdowns against Clemson.

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

OCTOBER 8

Wake Forest Demon Deacons 35, No. 23 Florida State Seminoles 30

WINSTON SALEM, N.C. — Florida State was undone by penalties and turnovers in dropping its third straight game.

As it turned out, 13 penalties and five turnovers were too much for the 'Noles to overcome.

True freshman wide receiver Rashad Greene turned in his best performance of the season. He had a career-high 12 catches for 164 yards and a touchdown.

The defense struggled again on third down and allowed 35 points for the second consecutive game.

Rashad Green had a career-high 12 catches for 164 yards and a touchdown against Wake Forest.

OCTOBER 15

Florida State Seminoles 41, Duke Blue Devils 16

DURHAM, N.C. — The Seminoles needed this victory, simply to get back on the winning track.

The rushing attack finally broke loose, totaling 242 yards on the day.

Another true freshman, Devonta Freeman, would lead the way with 109 yards.

The defense had a good day as well. Nigel Bradham led the way with eight tackles, followed by Mike Harris with seven.

The 'Noles would total 10 tackles-for-loss.

Defensive lineman Everett Dawkins recorded an interception on a deflected pass by teammate Bjoern Werner.

True freshman Devonta Freeman tallied 109 yards in the win over Duke.

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

OCTOBER 22 Florida State Seminoles 41, Maryland Terrapins 16

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Playing inside Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time in more than a month, a balanced attack and dominating defense led the way.

FSU racked up 482 yards and registered a season-high six sacks on Maryland quarterbacks. Devonta Freeman got his first start and rushed for more than 100 yards for the second consecutive game.

Telvin Smith recorded two sacks and linemen Bjoern Werner and Timmy Jernigan wreaked havoc on the Maryland offense.

Timmy Jernigan and his fellow members of the defense wreaked havoc on the Terrapins.

OCTOBER 29 Florida State Seminoles 34, NC State Wolfpack 0

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — This game was over before it even started.

The Wolfpack had no answers all day for a determined Florida State team.

The defense held NC State to 166 total yards. EJ Manuel completed a career-high 25 passes, finishing with 321 yards in the air.

The defense shut down the running game, which made NC State one dimensional.

Lonnie Pryor rushed just five times for 26 yards, but one of those carries resulted in a touchdown against NC State.

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

NOVEMBER 3 Florida State Seminoles 38, Boston College Eagles 7

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. — For the 30th consecutive season, the Seminole football team guaranteed itself a trip to a bowl game.

This game saw the Seminole defense force four turnovers — two fumbles and interceptions by Bjoern Werner and Telvin Smith.

FSU's impressive freshman class had another guy step up, as tight end Nick O'Leary caught three passes for 87 yards.

Bjoern Werner tallied an interception in the game at Boston College.

NOVEMBER 12 Florida State Seminoles 23, Miami Hurricanes 19

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Rivalry games are always intense, and this game was no different.

The game had its fair share of interesting calls, including the opening play of the game where a fumble recovery for a touch-down by the 'Noles was overturned, one of many game stoppages due to replay.

In the end, the special teams unit proved to be the biggest weapon. All-American candidate Shawn Powell had 54.8 yards per punt on five kicks. He flipped the field several times for the 'Noles which helped the defense against the 'Canes.

This made for the third victory over in-state foe Miami for the 2011 senior class.

2011 FLORIDA STATE BOWL GUIDE

NOVEMBER 19 Virginia Cavaliers 14, No. 24 Florida State Seminoles 13

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — On Senior Night in Doak Campbell Stadium, the end result didn't turn out in the 'Noles favor.

"Bizarre" was the word commonly used by the media following this game.

The officials ended the game, but then decided to review the play, and eventually led to more time being put on the clock. It all came down to a field goal attempt by Lou Groza award finalist Dustin Hopkins, which sailed wide left.

This game was marred by penalties and missed opportunities for the Garnet and Gold. Nine penalties and 3-for-13 on third down held the team back.

The Seminoles ended up on the wrong side of the score on Senior Night.

NOVEMBER 26 Florida State Seminoles 21, Florida Gators 7

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — In a defensive battle, the Garnet and Gold came out on top of the archrival Gators in the Swamp and secured the second consecutive "state championship" for the 'Noles.

Freshman Devonta Freeman rushed for two touchdowns and Mark Stoops' defense forced four turnovers.

Senior Terrance Parks' interception return for a touchdown sent the Gator faithful to the gates.

The nation's No. 1 punter, Shawn Powell, was a weapon for the team, averaging 44.4 yards per kick.

The win moved head coach Jimbo Fisher's record vs. rivals Miami and Florida to 4-0.

The punting of Shawn Powell played a key role in his team's win over rival Florida.

HEAD COACH

JIMBO FISHER

24th season; fifth at Florida State (second as head coach)

Hard work was a family value in the Clarksburg, W.Va., home where Jimbo Fisher was raised, the oldest son of a coal miner and a teacher.

Applying those lessons instilled at an early age served Fisher well both athletically and professionally and ultimately delivered him to Florida State University, where he was elevated to head football coach on Jan. 5, 2010.

A veteran of 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher succeeded Bobby Bowden — the second-winningest coach in major college football — as the Seminoles' ninth head coach and first new one in 35 years.

In just more than a year, he helped deliver the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence. Boasting a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll, Fisher led his team to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl championship with a 26-17 win over then-No. 19 South Carolina. His first season also included a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003 as the Seminoles finished 10-4. Fisher won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history. He was named the 2010 Football Writers' Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach.

Three of his players in 2010 — offensive guard Rodney Hudson (consensus All-America selection), defensive end Brandon Jenkins and cornerback Xavier Rhodes — earned All-America honors. Rhodes was named the ACC Rookie of the Year and National Defensive Freshman of the Year.

Fisher's first season was capped when three Seminole seniors were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, led by quarterback Christian Ponder — the No. 12 overall pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Ponder became the highest offensive player to go for the 'Noles since offensive lineman Alex Barron in 2005. Before Ponder, Gary Huff was the highest-drafted FSU quarterback as the 33rd overall pick in the second round of the 1973 draft.

Fisher carried the success of his first season onto the recruiting trail as he put together a 2011 recruiting class ranked either first or second nationally by ESPN.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com.

"It is not a common man that I introduce you to today as our head football coach," FSU Director of Athletics Randy Spetman said at Fisher's formal introduction. "A common man would not have the courage, patience and determination to follow the greatest college football coach in history. A common man would find it too challenging to accept the coach-in-waiting role and ignore openings at other top-flight programs. A common man could not have rekindled the Seminoles spirit, excitement and vision so quickly."

Few embody the "unconquered spirit" that defines the Seminole Nation as well as Fisher, whose best attributes include a relentless work ethic, the passionate pursuit of perfection, a keen vision for the long-range future as well as a sense of place for his faith, family and football.

"I've been preparing for this day for a long time," Fisher said at his introductory press conference. "I've been fortunate in my life to be around a lot of successful people that I have learned many, many things from. But I think the greatest thing that I've learned from them is I have to be myself. I must do things the way I want to do them; do what got me here and remember the reasons why I am here."

Fisher has not wasted any time putting his stamp on the Seminoles. From assembling a staff of energetic, ambitious assistants to dramatically overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to every aspect of the program — from strength and conditioning, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring among teammates — is centered on establishing an unshakeable foundation that emphasizes the whole development of each player.
