JEFF HAFLEY

THE GREGORY P. BARBER '69 & FAMILY HEAD COACH

Jeff Hafley, who enters his fourth season at the helm of the Eagles, was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019.

On the recruiting trail, Hafley and his staff have signed three of the top recruiting classes in school history. The 2021 and 2022 signing classes earned ESPN's best ranking in program history since its rankings began in 2006. BC also earned its best showing in the 247 Sports rankings and was awarded its first Rivals top-30 class since 2004.

In 2022, Hafley and the Eagles picked up the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 2018 and first over an AP-ranked opponent since 2014 when BC upset No. 16 NC State on the road. The season was highlighted by wide receiver Zay Flowers rewriting the Boston College record book. Flowers set BC single-season and career records in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

Flowers became the fourth All-American under Hafley as he earned recognition from the Associated Press. He also led the Eagles' seven-player All-ACC contingent as a first-team selection.

One of college football's top defensive minds, Hafley's defense ranked third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) during the 2021 season. The Eagles were also top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories: total defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed, third down percentage, team passing efficiency, and defensive touchdowns. His disciplined squad led the ACC in fewest penalties and fewest penalty yards.

A total of 12 Eagles were All-ACC selections, led by First Team offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom. Johnson was named to seven different All-America teams and was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers, becoming the 21st first round pick in school history.

Following the spring schedule, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) recognized Hafley with the Super 11 Coach of the Year Award for outstanding media access to his program.

In his first season on the Heights in 2020, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year head coach in college football.

More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus in June of 2020.

Hafley helped improve BC's defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year, prior to his arrival. Isaiah McDuffie ranked fifth nationally in total tackles while Max Richardson ended the season 11th as Boston College was one of two schools in the entire country with two players finishing in the top 11 in tackles.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC First Team in Zay Flowers since 2012.

Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Boston College, Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten Championship and qualified for the College Football Playoff.

A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247 Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranked first nationally in yards per play, second nationally in total defense, third nationally in scoring defense, third nationally in sacks, seventh nationally in rushing defense, second nationally in passing yards allowed and first nationally in red zone defense.

Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to leading the country in 2019 in yards per play.

A standout defensive backs coach throughout his career in the NFL and collegiate ranks, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 interceptions in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL, the last three with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was stops at Pittsburgh and Rutgers. A native of Montvale, N.J., Hafley played four seasons as a wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000, graduating cum laude in 2001 with a degree in history.

He earned his master's degree from Albany in 2003.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL in 2012, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career working as running backs coach for one season (2001) at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at the University of Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) where he worked under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006.

Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011.

Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

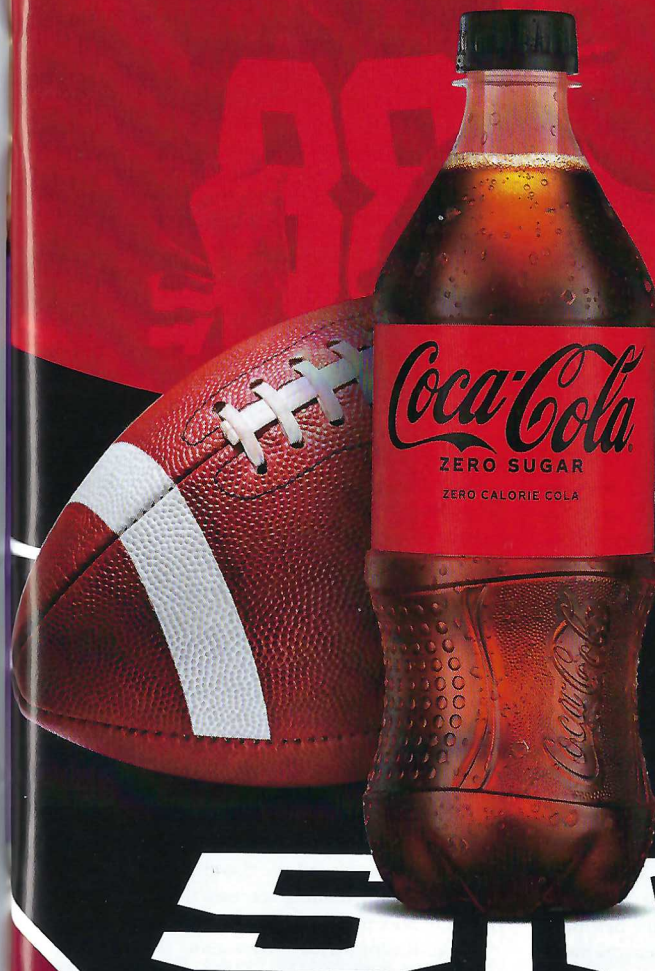

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as an assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013.

Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns followed under coach Mike Pettine. In 2014, his second season with the Browns, the team led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), opponent completion percentage (57.1) and passes defended with 99, while ranking second in the league with 21 interceptions.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers – 2016, 2017 and 2018 – preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the final two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the league in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th in 2015, the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim

Co-Defensive Coordinator/
Defensive Backs

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim enters his fourth season at BC and first as co-defensive coordinator, while retaining his coaching responsibilities with the Eagle defensive backs. He was elevated to the position in February of 2023 by head coach Jeff Hafley.

A pair of BC defensive backs earned All-ACC honors in 2022 with cornerback Elijah Jones and safety Jaiden Woodbey claiming Honorable Mention. As a team, the BC secondary was fifth in the ACC at 211.1 passing yards allowed per game.

Abdul-Rahim and his secondary helped BC rank third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) during the 2021 season. The Eagles were also top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories: total defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed, third down percentage, team passing efficiency, and defensive touchdowns.

Abdul-Rahim oversaw the development of Josh DeBerry into an All-ACC cornerback. DeBerry was named All-ACC Honorable Mention in 2020 and earned All-ACC Second Team honors in 2021. He was rated 19th nationally among all cornerbacks according to Pro Football Focus for the 2021 season. Cornerback Brandon Sebastian earned a spot on the All-ACC Third Team after leading the conference in interceptions (4), while safety Jaiden Woodbey was All-ACC Honorable Mention.

In his first season in Chestnut Hill, Abdul-Rahim made an instant impact in coaching the Eagles' defensive backs and helping improve the defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense. Boston College allowed 62 fewer yards per game on defense in 2020 compared to the previous year.

On the recruiting trail, Abdul-Rahim showed his prowess as one of the top recruiters in college football, helping to secure two of the top recruiting classes in school history. The 2021 and 2022 signing classes earned ESPN's best ranking in program history since its rankings began in 2006. BC also earned its best showing in the 247Sports rankings and was awarded its first Rivals top-30 class since 2004.

The Washington, D.C. native is highly regarded for his coaching acumen and equally sought after for his established ability to evaluate and recruit. Abdul-Rahim has experience at the high school and collegiate levels, including Alabama and Maryland. Abdul-Rahim came to the Heights after spending the 2019 season at UMass as defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

Prior to UMass, Abdul-Rahim spent three seasons at Maryland working in the secondary. Abdul-Rahim developed Maryland's defensive backs into one of the strongest units in the Big Ten, with all-conference recognition given to Darnell Savage, Jr. and Antoine Brooks, Jr. in 2017 and 2018, JC Jackson in 2017 and Tino Ellis in 2018.

Abdul-Rahim joined the Maryland staff in 2016 after a two-year stint at Alabama where he first served as a defensive analyst in 2014 before he was promoted to the assistant director of player personnel in 2015.

During his two seasons at Alabama, the Crimson Tide were selected for the College Football Playoffs in both years and won the national championship in 2015. Additionally, Alabama collected the No. 1 ranked recruiting class in the nation during each season, according to 247Sports.

Abdul-Rahim, a Washington, D.C. native, made his mark in his hometown as the head coach of Friendship Collegiate Academy. After he founded the school's football program in 2004, Abdul-Rahim turned it into a national powerhouse and accumulated 62 wins during his tenure while he also led the team to a District of Columbia State Athletic Association championship in 2012. He helped over 100 players earn scholarships to play college football.

Abdul-Rahim is also the founder "Cover One", a defensive back training academy that works with dozens of NFL players on skill development.

Abdul-Rahim played three seasons at San Diego State (1997-1999) after a stint at Mesa Community College. After college, the Dunbar High School standout competed for the San Diego Riptide of the Arena Football League.

Matt Applebaum

Offensive Line

Matt Applebaum returned to BC as offensive line coach for his second stint on the Heights in 2023. He previously served as the Eagles' offensive line coach in Hafley's first two seasons from 2020-21.

Applebaum spent the 2022 season in the NFL as the Miami Dolphins' offensive line coach, helping Miami to its first playoff appearance in six years. The Dolphins allowed five fewer sacks than the previous season and improved their rushing average from 3.5 yards per carry to 4.3; an improvement of nine spots in the league rankings.

During his initial stint at BC, Applebaum coached nine All-ACC selections and a pair of All-Americans in Zion Johnson, who was selected in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft, and Alec Lindstrom. The entire starting offensive line earned All-ACC in 2021, led by Johnson and Lindstrom on the first team.

"Coach Applebaum knows what it takes to forge a top-tier offensive line and develop talent for professional football," said Johnson, who started all 18 games, including the playoffs, for the Los Angeles Chargers this past season. "I'll always be grateful for his mentorship in helping me reach my goal of being a first round pick and playing in the National Football League."

Applebaum reunites with two-year starter Christian Mahogany, who was voted All-ACC Second Team in 2021 and returns to the field after missing all of 2022 following ACL surgery.

"I can't wait to get back to work with Coach Applebaum," said Mahogany. "Our whole unit was an All-ACC offensive line two seasons ago and I know we can achieve that and more under his leadership."

In 2021, Boston College averaged 165.2 rushing yards per game and allowed 2.17 sacks per game, which ranked fourth best in the ACC. The 2020 offensive line gained four All-ACC nods with Lindstrom claiming his first of two first-team picks. The line started all 11 games together and contributed to the third-ranked passing attack in the ACC at 284.2 yards per game.

Applebaum spent the 2018-19 seasons at Towson as offensive line coach. In both seasons, Aaron Grzymkowski earned All-CAA honors – second-team in 2019 and third-team in 2018. Offensive lineman Matt Kauffman earned FCS All-America honors and was named first-team All-CAA. Applebaum's unit helped protect quarterback Tom Flacco, who was named CAA Offensive Player of the Year. The Tigers had the top scoring (34.5) and total (465.0) offense in the CAA that season.

Applebaum spent the 2016-17 seasons at Davidson, where he coached the offensive line. He was promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line in 2017. He also coached the offensive line for Bucknell (2013) and Southeastern Louisiana (2015).

Applebaum has five years of NFL experience, including his season with the Dolphins. He was an offensive assistant for Jacksonville in 2014 and spent three seasons (2008-10) with Washington in a variety of roles. He joined Washington in 2008 as a personnel assistant before being promoted to college personnel assistant in 2009 and moving into coaching as an offensive assistant in 2010.

From 2011-12, Applebaum served as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami. His first coaching job came in 2008 at Central Connecticut State, where he served as tight ends coach and video coordinator.

A Yardley, Pennsylvania native, Applebaum was a two-year starter on the offensive line at Connecticut, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science. He and his wife, Bethany, have a son, Colton.

lege game, including 2020-22 at BC, plus 14 years of NFL experience; most notably as head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 2013.

Chudzinski guided the Browns for one season; going 4-12 in 2013. He gained offensive coordinator experience at the professional level in his second of three stints in Cleveland during the 2007 and 2008 seasons as well as two years with the Carolina Panthers (2011-12) and three years with the Indianapolis Colts (2015-17). Chudzinski was initially hired by the Colts in 2014 as their associate head coach following the 2013 season in Cleveland. His first offensive coordinator opportunity came at his alma mater, the University of Miami, from 2001-03; overseeing the Hurricanes' BCS National Championship offense.

Chudzinski's NFL offenses ranked in the top-10 three times in total yards with Cleveland (2007, 8th), Carolina (2011, 7th) and Indianapolis (2016, 10th). Those same offenses were top 10 in points; Cleveland (8th), Carolina (5th), Indianapolis (8th).

A tight end in his playing days, Chudzinski played collegiately at the University of Miami, where he was a three-year starter. He was a part of two National Championship teams in 1987 and 1989. Chudzinski got his coach in starting at his alma mater as a graduate assistant from 1994-95. He then moved to tight ends coach from 1996-00 before being elevated to offensive coordinator from 2001-03.

In his first season running the offense in 2001, Chudzinski played a large part in the Hurricanes' National Championship. He coached three All-America tight ends and guided a 2001 offense that featured running backs Clinton Portis and Frank Gore as well as wide receiver Andre Johnson and tight end Jeremy Shockey with quarterback Ken Dorsey under center.

Chudzinski and his wife Sheila have three sons; Kaelan, Rian and Declan as well as one daughter; Margaret.

Sean Duggan

Co-Defensive Coordinator/
Linebackers

Former Boston College linebacker Sean Duggan enters his fourth season as BC's linebackers coach and first as co-defensive coordinator; a position he was promoted to under head coach Jeff Hafley in February 2023. Duggan, who played in 45 career games during his career with the Eagles, served as captain of the 2014 Boston College squad.

Vinny DePalma ranked 15th in the ACC in tackles in 2022 with a team-high 87. He became the fourth linebacker under Duggan's tutelage to earn All-ACC recognition as a Honorable Mention pick.

Isaiah Graham-Mobley ranked 28th in the ACC in tackles during the 2021 season, despite missing three games due to injury. He averaged 5.8 tackles per game and signed as a free agent with the Carolina Panthers following the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first season back at the Heights, Duggan oversaw a unit that featured two of the nation's leading tacklers.

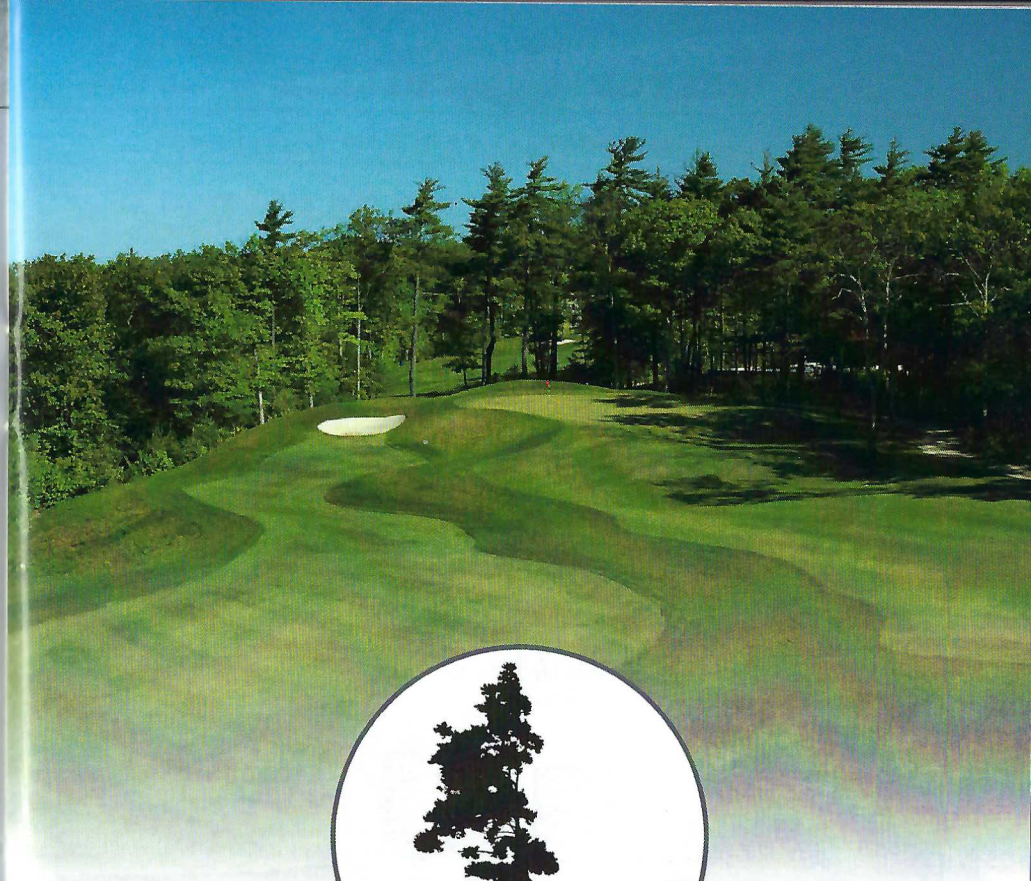

Isaiah McDuffie led BC and ranked fifth in the nation with 107 tackles in 2020. He ranked 30th nationally with 9.7 tackles per game and was an All-ACC Second Team selection.

The Green Bay Packers selected McDuffie in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft. The Buffalo native had a career-best 16 tackle performance vs. No. 2 Notre Dame, which was tied for second most by an ACC player all season.

Max Richardson earned All-ACC Third Team honors after finishing second on the team and fourth in the ACC with 99 tackles. He ended the year 11th nationally in tackles and posted double-digit tackles in five ACC games. Richardson signed as a free agent with the Las Vegas Raiders following the 2021 NFL Draft.

Duggan joined the defensive staff in February of 2019 and served as a graduate assistant coach for the Buckeyes. He was a key part of an Ohio State defensive staff that ranked first nationally in yards per play (3.9), second nationally in total defense (247.6 yards per game), third nationally in scoring defense (12.5 points per game), third nationally in sacks (3.92 per game), seventh nationally in rushing defense (99.5 yards per game), second nationally in passing yards allowed (148.1 yards per game) and first nationally in red zone defense (64.2%).

Prior to Ohio State, Duggan spent one season at UMass as linebackers coach in 2018. During his stay in Amherst, he mentored Bryton Barr, a New England Football Writers Association (NEFWA) All-Region Team selection. Barr was also the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year.

LEADING THE EAGLES

Duggan served on the University of Hawai'i staff as linebackers coach for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. While at Hawai'i, Duggan guided a host of successful Rainbow Warriors, including 2016 All-Mountain West First Team choice Jahlani Tavai and NFL-bound Jerrol Garcia-Williams.

Duggan joined the BC staff in 2015 as the team's defensive graduate assistant and helped the unit produce the nation's top total defense and No. 4 scoring defense (15.3 points/game).

As a player at BC, Duggan played in 45 career games and was a captain in 2014. He was the sixth BC captain from St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati at the Heights, joining Pat Ross (2005), Nick Larkin (2007), Alex Albright (2010), Luke Kuechly (2011) and Ben Glines (2019). Duggan finished his BC career with 115 career tackles, 6.5 TFLs, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

Savon Huggins

Running Backs

Savon Huggins begins his second season as running backs coach at Boston College in 2022.

He arrived on the Heights for the 2021 season as a recruiting advisor after a brief stint as the running backs coach at Massachusetts. The former Rutgers running back worked with BC backs in the fall.

Huggins helped running back Pat Garwo earn a spot on the All-ACC Second Team along with All-New England honors. Garwo was the No. 4 rusher in the ACC with 1,045 yards, becoming the 19th BC player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

In 2022, Garwo put up career numbers as a receiver out of the backfield with 29 catches; ranking second on the team behind All-American Zay Flowers.

Huggins got his start in coaching at Somerville (N.J.) High School, gained experience as an intern with the Miami Dolphins, and broke into the college ranks at Buffalo in 2020 as a wide receivers assistant.

At Somerville, Huggins worked as an assistant on offense and defense as the team posted a cumulative 32-3 record between 2016-18 and won a state title in 2017. Following a fellowship with the Dolphins, he returned to his high school alma mater of St. Peter's Prep (N.J.) to win a state title as an offensive assistant.

As a player, Huggins spent four seasons at Rutgers and earned his degree in economics in three and a half years. He missed his senior year due to injury after compiling 842 rushing yards, nine rushing touchdowns and 20 receptions in his first three seasons. The Scarlet Knights played in a bowl game in all four years of his career. He was named to the Big Ten All-Academic Team in 2014.

Huggins went on to earn his master's degree from Northern Iowa in sports psychology. He ran 59 times for 232 yards with a pair of rushing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown during the 2015 season.

He and his wife Victoria have two sons; Zion and Zayden.

Vince Oghobaase

Defensive Line

Vince Oghobaase (oh-guh-BAH-see) begins his fourth season as the defensive line coach at Boston College. A former standout at Duke, Oghobaase returned to the ACC after a two-year stint at UCLA.

Oghobaase helped BC rank third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) during the 2021 season. The Eagles were also top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories: total defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed, third down percentage, team passing efficiency, and defensive touchdowns. BC ranked fifth in the ACC a year later in passing yards allowed (211.2) and improved from 1.67 sacks per game to 2.25.

In 2022, defensive end Donovan Ezeiruaku was named an All-ACC Second Team pick with 8.5 sacks and 14.5 tackles for loss; both the most by an Eagle since 2018. Defensive tackle Chibueze Onwuka also earned All-ACC Honorable Mention.

Oghobaase mentored Marcus Valdez into an All-ACC Honorable Mention defensive end in 2021. Valdez ranked eighth in the ACC with 0.56 sacks per game and was a leader along the defensive front.

In his first season at Boston College, Oghobaase oversaw a unit that featured several new faces, including three transfers who started in 2020. Max Roberts joined the program in September and finished with 4.5 sacks and 6.5 tackles-for-loss. Following the season, Roberts was invited to play in the Hula Bowl and signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Rams following the 2021 NFL Draft.

Oghobaase became UCLA's defensive line coach in January of 2018. He joined the Bruin staff after working the previous two seasons in the NFL as the San Francisco 49ers' assistant defensive line coach. He played collegiately at Duke University and finished his career ranked among the top 10 at the school in both sacks and tackles for loss.

In year two at UCLA, the Bruin defensive front helped cut almost 0.5 yards per carry off of the opponent rushing average per carry from the previous season and held four teams under 100 yards rushing in a game. The defense upped its quarterback sack total from 11 to 26 over a year's time. Osa Odighizuwa led Bruin linemen with 46 tackles and added a team-high tying 10.0 tackles for loss.

In 2018, Oghobaase tutored a young group of linemen, including five freshmen and sophomores in major roles, which helped to produce improved numbers in average gain per rush allowed (down over a yard per carry), total offense yards allowed per game (down by almost 40 yards per game), turnovers forced (+5) and points per game allowed.

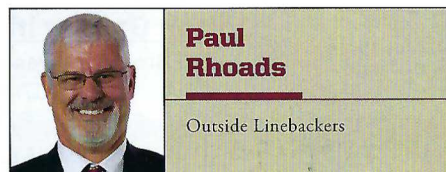

Prior to his time in the NFL, Oghobaase served as a defensive graduate assistant at The Ohio State University for three years (2013-15). Working primarily with the defensive linemen, he helped coach a Buckeye defense that ranked among the top-10 in the nation in sacks during each of the three seasons [2015 – tied for ninth (38.0); 2014 – tied for seventh (45.0); 2013 – third (44.0)]. During his tenure at Ohio State, he tutored defensive end Joey Bosa, now in the NFL with the Los Angeles Chargers, who registered 26.0 career sacks, the third most in school history. In 2014, Bosa recorded 13.5 sacks, which ranked fifth in the nation and as the second highest single-season total in school history.

Oghobaase began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Duke in 2011, and helped the Blue Devils earn the program's first bowl game appearance since 1994.

Oghobaase was a four-year starter as a player at Duke from 2006-09, seeing action in 44 games. He registered 165 tackles during his career, and finished his career ranked sixth in school history in both sacks (14.0) and tackles for loss (36.5). During his college career, Oghobaase earned Freshman All-American honors in 2006 and was twice named honorable mention All-ACC (2008-09). He received third-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2009.

A native of Houston, Texas, Oghobaase graduated from Duke in 2010 with a degree in sociology and signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins after attending the NFL Scouting Combine. He later played with the Hartford Colonials in the United Football League and spent time on the Washington Redskins' practice squad in 2010.

Paul Rhoads

Outside Linebackers

Paul Rhoads, former head coach at Iowa State, was added to the 2023 staff as the outside linebackers coach. He brings 32 years of experience in the college game and spent the fall of 2022 as the defensive coordinator at Gulf Shores High School in Alabama; where he helped Gulf Shores to an 11-2 season, while earning Alabama 5A Assistant Coach of the Year.

In the college ranks, Rhoads most recently held a defensive analyst position with Ohio State in 2021 following the 2020 season at Arizona as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator. He previously coached defensive backs at UCLA (2018-19) and Arkansas (2016-17), where he was also the defensive coordinator for one season.

In seven seasons at Iowa State, from 2009-15, Rhoads guided the Cyclones to a 32-55 record and three bowl game appearances. ISU went 7-6 in his first season and won the Insight Bowl over Minnesota. The Cyclones also reached bowl games after six-win seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Rhoads helped Iowa State snap an 11-game Big 12 losing streak with a win over Baylor in his first season and guided the Cyclones to their first road win at Nebraska since 1977 en route to becoming the first ISU coach in nearly a century to win six or more games in his initial season.

Iowa State gained its first-ever win over Texas in 2010 as the Cyclones upended the No. 22 Longhorns, 28-21. The 2011 season was highlighted by a lopsided upset at No. 19 Texas Tech in a 512-yard effort for the ISU offense. Later that season, Iowa State earned an overtime win against No. 2 Oklahoma State; the program's first win over a top-six AP-ranked opponent.

Hafley and Rhoads worked together for two seasons at Pittsburgh, where Rhoads was the defensive coordinator from 2000-07. During that eight-year stretch, five of Rhoads' defenses ranked in the nation's top-30 for scoring, while three finished in the top-12 in the NCAA for fewest yards allowed.

Rhoads and his wife Vickie have two sons; Jake and Wyatt.

Steve Shimko

Offensive Coordinator/
Quarterbacks

Steve Shimko enters his fourth season at Boston College and first as offensive coordinator. Shimko coached tight ends in his first two seasons with the Eagles before serving as quarterbacks coach in 2022.

In the final four weeks of the 2022 season, red-shirt freshman quarterback Emmett Morehead made the first starts of his career. Having been elevated to second-string under Shimko's direction, Morehead stepped in and threw for four touchdowns and 330 yards in his first start. Morehead went on to record two games of 325-plus yards and three-plus touchdowns as he became one of just two freshmen (true or redshirt) QBs in the country to reach those marks in multiple games.

During the 2021 season, Shimko helped mentor transfer Trae Barry into an All-ACC tight end. Barry earned Honorable Mention honors after ranking sixth in the ACC with 17.2 yards per reception while adding four receiving touchdowns. He earned a rookie mini-camp invite from the Arizona Cardinals.

In his first season at the Heights, Shimko made an immediate impact as he helped develop tight end Hunter Long into one of the leading tight ends in college football in 2020.

Long became the highest drafted Boston College tight end in school history after the Miami Dolphins selected him in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

He was named a Second Team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America, AP, Sporting News, CBS Sports and The Athletic in 2020.

Long was the top receiving tight end in the nation in 2020. The New Hampshire native led all tight ends nationally in receptions (57) and ranked second in receiving yards (685) behind Florida's Kyle Pitts.

Prior to BC, the New Jersey native helped tutor Russell Wilson as he was named to the Pro Football Writers Association All-NFL team for the first time in 2019. Wilson finished the season throwing for 4,110 yards and 31 touchdowns with just five interceptions. He had a passer rating of 106.3 in leading the Seahawks to the NFL Divisional Playoffs.

Shimko joined Seattle after two seasons (2016-17) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Garden City (Kan.) Community College where he won the NJACC National Championship in his first season.

Prior to Garden City, he spent one season each at the University of Georgia (2015), Western Michigan (2014) and his alma mater, Rutgers (2013).

Shimko played quarterback at Rutgers but a shoulder injury cut short his career. Under NCAA rules, he became a student assistant under head coach Greg Schiano until graduating with a degree in criminal justice & labor relations.

Matt Thurin

Special Teams Coordinator/
Safeties

Matt Thurin enters year four as special teams coordinator and as a defensive assistant coach working with the safeties for the Eagles. Thurin came to the Heights after a five-year stint at Ohio State.

Boston College's 2022 special teams unit was one of just four in the ACC to block two or more kicks. A blocked extra-point against Louisville proved to be the difference in the Eagles' first league win of the season.

In 2021, Connor Lytton was second in the ACC and 11th nationally in field goal percentage, connecting on 11 of his 12 attempts including both from 40+ yards. Grant Carlson ranked top-30 nationally in punting average (44.2) while Travis Levy ranked second in the ACC and 15th nationally in kickoff return average (27.5).

LEADING THE EAGLES

In his first season at the Heights, Thurin made a major impact in the improvement of Boston College's special teams. BC finished 34th nationally in field goal percentage in 2020, the best finish for the Eagles since 2013.

Aaron Boumerhi converted 16-of-20 of his field goal attempts while Grant Carlson averaged over 42 yards per punt, including 15 punts pinned inside the 20-yard line.

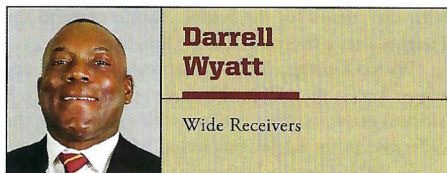

Thurin worked together with BC head coach Jeff Hafley for one season with the Buckeyes as Thurin worked with the safeties and on special teams as a defensive quality control coach.

Thurin was part of three consecutive Big Ten Conference championship teams at Ohio State and also victories in the 2019 Rose Bowl, the 2018 Cotton Bowl and the 2016 Fiesta Bowl.

A native of Louisville, Ohio, Thurin attended Baldwin Wallace University where he played football and baseball before an injury ended his playing career. He played for Baldwin Wallace's 2003 Division III playoff team and graduated in 2007 with a degree in early childhood education. He has a master's in education from Akron (2009).

Thurin came to Columbus after working three seasons – 2012-14 – as secondary coach and special team's coordinator at Columbia University. In 2011, Thurin was a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado, working along the offensive line and on special teams. Prior to that, he spent three seasons at Akron as a defensive graduate assistant working with the Zip linebackers and secondary. Thurin's coaching career also includes a year at Walsh University.

Thurin is married to Elizabeth Tinto, from Chesapeake, Va. The couple has a daughter, Adaline.

Darrell Wyatt

Wide Receivers

Darrell Wyatt was introduced as the Eagles' wide receivers coach by Jeff Hafley at the start of Boston College's 2022 spring practices. He added passing game coordinator responsibilities for the 2023 season.

Wyatt helped oversee the evolution of Zay Flowers into a first-round NFL draft pick in 2023. Flowers was featured heavily in the BC offense as he set the program record for receiving touchdowns in a season (12), tied the receptions record (78) and posted the fourth 1,000-yard season in BC history at 1,077. Flowers also broke the career record in all three categories before being selected by the Baltimore Ravens.

Flowers was an All-ACC First Team pick and Associated Press All-American.

Wyatt came to the Heights after four seasons at Central Florida. During his tenure at UCF, Wyatt spent three years working for head coach Josh Heupel and his final year with head coach Gus Malzhan. During that time, the Knights compiled a 37-12 record, including an undefeated regular season in 2018, and four bowl game appearances, including the 2019 Fiesta Bowl.

In 2021, UCF averaged 206.2 passing yards and 31.9 points per game. Wyatt and the Knights produced two 500-yard receivers in Ryan O'Keefe (812) and Brandon Johnson (565). Johnson was second in the American Athletic Conference with 11 receiving touchdowns, while O'Keefe, who earned All-AAC Second Team, added seven. O'Keefe set a UCF single-season record with 84 receptions.

Wyatt coached a pair of UCF All-Americans during his first three seasons in Orlando with Gabriel Davis and Marlon Williams under his tutelage. Davis was a fourth round pick of the Buffalo Bills in 2020 and has compiled 70 receptions in two years in the NFL.

Prior to UCF, Wyatt served as an offensive assistant at Arkansas State in 2017. The Red Wolves produced a top-five passing offense and a top-20 total offense ranking during his lone season with the squad.

Previously, he was at Houston in 2016 as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. The Cougars posted a nine-win season in 2016, including a week-one win over No. 13 Oklahoma. As an offensive analyst at Oklahoma State in 2015, the Cowboys started 10-0 and finished with a win over No. 16 Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl.

Wyatt was on the coaching staff at Texas from 2011-13 under Mack Brown. He was co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Longhorns in 2013, while serving as co-recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2011 and 2012. During his time at Texas, Wyatt's wide receivers earned five All-Big 12 Conference accolades. With Wyatt's help as co-recruiting coordinator, the 2012 Texas signing class was ranked No. 2 in the nation.

In 2008-09, Wyatt was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles were No. 18 in the nation in scoring offense and No. 31 in total offense in 2009. In 2008, Southern Miss broke 36 offensive school records en route to the No. 20 total offensive output in the country.

Wyatt also has coaching experience with Kansas, Arizona, the NFL's Minnesota Vikings, Oklahoma, Baylor, Wyoming, Sam Houston State and Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College.

A native of Killeen, Texas, Wyatt is a 1989 graduate of Kansas State University where he played for two seasons after transferring from Trinity Valley in Athens, Texas.

He and his wife Cindy are parents of a son, Desmond, and a daughter, Charese.

Phil Matusz

Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach

Phil Matusz (mah-TOOSZ) begins his fourth year as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Boston College football program. In his time with the Eagles, he has overseen the physical and weight training development of four NFL Draft picks, including first-round selections Zion Johnson (2022-Chargers) and Zay Flowers (2023-Ravens).

Prior to his arrival at the Heights, Matusz spent six seasons with the Ohio State football program after initially joining the program's strength and conditioning staff as an assistant coach in February 2014. He was promoted to associate director, strength and conditioning, in 2017. The Buckeyes also played for four Big Ten championships and won three straight from 2017-19 during his tenure.

Matusz helped the Buckeye football program win the inaugural College Football Playoff national championship in 2014 and four Big Ten Conference championships, including three straight from 2017-19.

He came to Ohio State from the Main Line in Philadelphia where he had worked two seasons as the head football strength and conditioning coach at Villanova, his alma mater.

Matusz had two stints at Villanova; the first coming after the National Championship season in August 2010 when he was an intern in the strength and conditioning program, and the second beginning in 2011 after he returned to be the Head Olympic Strength and Conditioning Coach. He was quickly promoted just a year later to work with the football program. In between his time at Villanova, Matusz was an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at North Carolina A&T.

A native of Greenville, Pa., Matusz's programs at Villanova covered all aspects of performance, including strength training, speed, agility, conditioning, flexibility, mobility, soft tissue work and nutrition. In addition to working with the football program, he also designed programs for men's and women's lacrosse, baseball, softball, volleyball and women's soccer.

A standout on the football field, Matusz was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Wildcats and the team captain of Villanova's 2009 FCS National Championship team. For his efforts in 2009, Matusz was a CSN honorable mention All-American and a second-team All-CAA honoree. In his five years with the program, Villanova posted a 41-19 record, including a 24-4 mark in his final two seasons.

Matusz is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through Collegiate Strength, Conditioning Coaches Association and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also is a Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES) through the National Academy of Sports Medicine. He also holds multiple certifications from Functional Anatomy Seminars; Certified Functional Range Assessment Specialist (FRA), Certified FRC Mobility Specialist (FRCms) and Certified Functional Range Strength Coach (FRSC). He has graduated with Master's Degrees in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from PennWest California and Sport Administration from Boston College in the Woods College of Advancing Studies. Also completing a Certificate program in Child & Family Mental Health and Wellness from Boston College in the Lynch School of Education and Human Development.

Matusz is married to Jillian Byers, of Long Island, N.Y. They have two daughters, Kingsley and Berkeley.

FLY EAGLES

Maroon and Gold

In the mid-1880s, a committee of students was appointed to determine which hue would best represent BC. After considering the colors of rival Jesuit institutions — Holy Cross’s purple, Fordham’s maroon, Georgetown’s blue and gray — the committee selected two of the Papal colors, maroon and gold. The student body unanimously approved.

Eagle Nickname

The Eagle nickname and mascot were conceived by Rev. Edward McLaughlin, S.J. Fr. McLaughlin, incensed at a Boston newspaper cartoon depicting the champion BC track team as a cat licking clean a plate of its rivals, penned a passionate letter to the student newspaper, The Heights, in 1920. “It is important that we adopt a mascot to preside at our pow-wows and triumphant feats,” Fr. McLaughlin wrote. “And why not the eagle, symbolic of majesty, power and freedom? Its natural habitat is the high places. Surely the Heights is made to order for such a selection.”

Superfans

As juniors in the 1997-98 school year, Jeff Bridge and Chris Millette embarked on a mission that would change the atmosphere at Boston College football, basketball and hockey games. The two fans started to plan a way to make games at BC more exciting. They created a “Gold Rush Game” and sold gold “Superfans” T-shirts for just a few dollars in the BC Bookstore. Today, the gold-clad “BC Superfans” can be seen en masse.

The Gridiron Club Eagle

In celebration of BC’s 50th season in Alumni Stadium, the Boston College Gridiron Club made a generous contribution to fund a “Gridiron Club Eagle” tradition display adjacent to the team’s locker room. At each home game, when the team emerges from the locker room, each member touches the eagle in honor of all the student-athletes, coaches and fans who have played a role in establishing BC’s proud football tradition. The eagle was unveiled before the 2006 thrilling double-overtime win over Clemson.

For Boston

For Boston, for Boston,
We sing our proud refrain!
For Boston, for Boston
‘Tis Wisdom’s earthly fane.
For here all are one
And their hearts are true,
And the towers on the Heights
Reach to Heav’n’s own blue.
For Boston, for Boston,
Till the echoes ring again!

For Boston, for Boston,
Thy glory is our own!
For Boston, for Boston,
‘Tis here the Truth is known.
And ever with the Right
Shall thy heirs be found,
Till time shall be no more
And thy work is crown’d.
For Boston, for Boston,
For Thee and Thine alone.

A HISTORY OF EAGLES FOOTBALL

► BC dedicated Boston College Stadium, the new home of the Eagles, in Chestnut Hill at the start of the 1932 season.

Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68

The 2022 season will be the 124th year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester, Massachusetts, native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 200-meter dash and 220-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on-campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on Middle Campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's Upper Campus.

◀ In 1937, Lou Montgomery '41 became the first Black athlete in BC history. A dominant running back, Montgomery contributed to the Eagles' 1940 championship season, but was forced to sit out the Sugar Bowl due to discriminating laws in America's south.

◀ Led by "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke, head coach Frank Leahy's Eagles went undefeated at 11-0 to win the 1940 National Championship. The Eagles finished the year with a 19-13 win over Tennessee at the 1941 Sugar Bowl.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first inter-sectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season (6-0-2). The team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 — BC named Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule was upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games were shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lost only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 — On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy was named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

1941 — On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Cocoanut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Cocoanut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College lost to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards ◀ Quarterback Doug Flutie led the Eagles to a Cotton Bowl victory over Houston to cap the Eagles' 1984 season, which saw Flutie win the Heisman Trophy and BC pull off a last-second win at Miami on Flutie's Hail Mary touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan.

▶ David Gordon's 41-yard field goal as time expired ignited a celebration from the visiting sideline as the Eagles came from behind to stun No. 1 Notre Dame, 41-39, and end the Irish's chance at a national championship.

every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also included lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 — On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC full-back/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College was told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considered dropping the sport.

1957 — On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announced the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney led the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface was installed and lights were added for night play.

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, were the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette was the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record did not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

1975 — The Eagles opened the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC opened seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

Alumni Stadium was renovated and expanded to its current 44,500-person capacity for the 1994 season, which included an upset of No. 8 Notre Dame at home as well as a shutout of No. 14 Syracuse. ▼

1978 — The Eagles suffered their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo on Dec. 10.

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell was hired as head coach. He opened the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie saw his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 — The Eagles opened the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles were invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that was remembered as the game "that the lights went out." Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities was dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

◀ Mathias Kiwanuka and the Eagles wrapped up the team's Big East era with a 9-3 regular season in 2004; winning a share of the conference's regular season title. BC's season was highlighted with a win over Notre Dame and bowl victory over eventual league-opponent North Carolina.

▶ The Eagles won their second of back-to-back ACC Atlantic Division titles in 2008 behind first-team All-ACC LB Mark Herzlich. Herzlich missed all of 2009 due to Ewing's Sarcoma, but returned healthy in 2010 and won the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award.

1991 — Coughlin was hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC played the first BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 — BC scored three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale, where they beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television that year.

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and then-BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 — Boston College made its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeated Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green became the third-straight Eagle back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earned first-team All-America honors and was later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 — The Eagles posted an 8-4 record and earned back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. Green rushed for 1,559 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 — BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

▲ Matt Ryan and the Eagles peaked at No. 2 in the polls in 2007 and claimed an ACC Atlantic Division championship. Ryan was drafted the following spring as the highest drafted player in BC history with the third pick to the Atlanta Falcons.

2003 — On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, S.J. and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo held a press conference to announce that Boston College accepted an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG EAST Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first ACC game — a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "GameDay" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 — Another successful year for BC football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including back-to-back double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23). The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow, 25-24, victory.

2007 — With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski — a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant — at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year — the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 — the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounced back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 — As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame — the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 — A longtime BC defensive assistant, Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 — The defensively powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive postseason bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 — For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 and missed out on postseason play. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-America LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 — The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on Dec. 4.

2013 — The Addazio era began with a 24-14 victory over feisty Villanova in his BC coaching debut. The Eagles turned in a successful seven-win season and an invitation to play Pac-12 opponent Arizona in the Advocate v100 Bowl game in Shreveport, Louisiana on Dec. 31 — the Eagles' first post-season appearance since 2010. Along the way, BC scored ACC victories over Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Maryland and North Carolina State. The 38-21 victory over the Wolfpack on Nov. 16, made the Eagles bowl-eligible and set off an enthusiastic celebration in Alumni Stadium, hailing the program's return to the ranks of college football's upper echelon. Running back Andre Williams rushed for a school-record 2,177 yards and 18 touchdowns. Williams was accorded consensus All-America honors; won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back; and became BC's first Heisman Trophy finalist since the Doug Flutie nearly 30 years earlier.

2014 — Addazio kept the Eagles on track with another winning season and another postseason bowl trip. BC went 7-6, highlighted by an electric, 37-31 upset over ninth-ranked Southern California in Alumni Stadium on Sept. 13. The Eagles topped the Trojans for the first BC victory versus a top-10 team in seven years and the first win for an unranked BC team against a top-10 team since 2002. BC became bowl eligible on Nov. 1 with a three-point victory at Virginia Tech and later earned a berth to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium against Penn State on Dec. 27. The defense ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 yards per game and the offense finished the season 14th with 254.7 yards per game, setting a BC school record with 3,311 total yards. Quarterback Tyler Murphy made a lasting impression in his one season at The Heights, setting both the Boston College and Atlantic Coast Conference records for rushing yards by a QB with 1,184.

2015 — Although the team went 3-9 to miss out on a bowl game for the first time in three seasons, it was led by the nation's best defense. The Eagles held defending national champion Florida State to only one offensive touchdown and kept the Eagles within a touchdown of winning five games. The Eagles ranked first in total defense and first downs defense and fourth in scoring defense.

2016 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the third time in four seasons. Boston College won its first bowl game since 2007 after a 36-30 victory over Maryland in the Quick Lane Bowl. The Eagles finished the season with three consecutive victories and featured the nation's ninth-best defense. Junior Harold Landry earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation as he led the nation in sacks (16.5) and forced fumbles (seven).

2017 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons. Boston College was just one of two bowl teams nationally to play 10 teams who qualified for a bowl in 2017. The Eagles featured ACC Rookie of the Year AJ Dillon, the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen and the country's No. 7 overall rusher with 1,589 yards and 14 touchdowns. Boston College had nine players earn All-ACC honors, tied for the most in school history. Three Eagles earned All-America accolades (Lukas Denis, Walter Camp Second Team; AJ Dillon, Freshman All-America; Ben Petrella, Freshman All-America).

2018 — The Eagles won seven games (7-5) and returned to a bowl game for the fifth time in six seasons. The Eagles made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff Top 25 rankings, returned to the national AP and coaches' polls for the first time since 2008 and hosted College GameDay for the third time in school history. BC started the season 7-2 overall and spent four weeks in the national rankings, the most weeks ranked since the 2007 campaign. Four players captured All-America honors (Hamp Cheevers, Chris Lindstrom, Michael Walker and Zach Allen) while BC tied a modern-day record with four players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (Chris Lindstrom, Zach Allen, Will Harris, Tommy Sweeney). Lindstrom became the 20th first-round pick in school history going 14th overall to the Atlanta Falcons.

2019 — Boston College finished the regular season 6-6 overall and AD Martin Jarmond announced a change in leadership following the win over Pitt in the regular season finale. Jarmond appointed Ohio State defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley as the program's 36th head coach in history on Dec. 14, 2019.

AJ Dillon and John Phillips earned All-ACC first-team honors following the season while Dillon finished fourth in ACC history in career rushing yards. He was a second-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft and an AP All-American third-team selection.

2020 — In his first season on the Heights, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year head coach in college football in 2020 with a 6-5 record.

More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus last June.

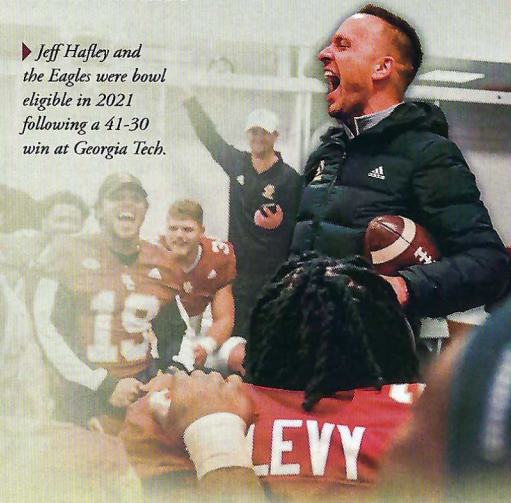

Hafley, one of college football's top defensive minds, helped improve a BC defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year prior to his arrival.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC First-Team in Zay Flowers since 2012. Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

2021 — Boston College started year-two under Hafley a perfect 4-0 in non-conference play, capped by an overtime win over Missouri from the Southeastern Conference at Alumni Stadium. The Eagles finished the year 6-6 and earned a bid to the Military Bowl in Annapolis, Md., which was ultimately cancelled.

A total of 12 Eagles earned All-ACC accolades, including first-team offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom. Both earned All-American status, while Johnson and was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers.

Pat Garwo, an All-ACC second team selection, became the 19th 1,000-yard rusher in BC history with 1,045 yards, which ranked fourth in the ACC.

Fish Field House

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Boston College opened its new athletics field house, a $52.6 million, 115,700 square-foot facility that provides indoor practice space for BC football and other varsity sports, at the start of the 2018 training camp.

Named the Fish Field House in recognition of a leadership gift from former BC Board of Trustees Chairman and current Trustee Associate and Board of Regents Chairman John Fish, P '13, '18, the donor-funded facility features a full regulation field with an AstroTurf playing surface, and a 12,000 square-foot strength and conditioning center.

The Field House features a full weight training facility, sports medicine rooms and equipment rooms. A stadium-sized videoboard is displayed on the wall of the south end zone and provides live, in-practice film playback from the facility's in-house video control room.

Fish played football at Bowdoin College and credits sports with teaching him the values of collaboration, empathy and humility.

"This new field house will help Boston College Athletics by providing BC's student-athletes\ with one of the best indoor practice facilities in the country," said Fish. "I am a big fan of Boston College football and all of BC's teams, and I am pleased to help them succeed through this facility."

The Fish Field House is part of a $200 million investment in facilities that includes new baseball, softball and intramural fields in the Harrington Athletics Village on the Brighton Campus, and the 240,000 square-foot Connell Recreation Center, which opened in the summer of 2019.

Fish Field House has also been used to house early-season women's lacrosse games for BC's 2021 national championship winning program.

TUNE IN ALL SEASON LONG

LEARFIELD, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College football.

For the 16th straight season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined in the broadcast booth by expert analyst Pete Cronan and sideline reporter Scott Mutryn. Boston College fans can listen to the LEARFIELD Radio Network on Flagship station WEEI 850 AM or WEEI 93.7 FM, additional stations across New England, or globally on Sirius/XM satellite radio or the Varsity Network.

Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet and available on your mobile device free of charge via www.bccagles.com.

Meterparel is entering his 16th season as the voice of Boston College football and is also entering his ninth season calling Boston College basketball. Meterparel also serves as one of the voices of the Arena Football League on CBS Sports Network. The Weston, Massachusetts, native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-12. Meterparel called Harvard University football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast Sportscaster of the Year in 2007. Meterparel and his wife, Heather, are the proud parents of sons Ben and Nick.

Cronan, a star defensive tackle and inside linebacker at Boston College who captained the 1976 Eagle entry, begins his 32nd year as the color analyst for Boston College football. A second-round pick of Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College LEARFIELD Radio Network since 1988 and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsk, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke and Jon Meterparel.

Mutryn, a quarterback at Boston College from 1994-98, is entering his eighth season on the Boston College broadcast team. Mutryn was a Parade All-American out of Saint Ignatius High School in Cleveland, Ohio, and finished his BC career ranked among the school's top-10 quarterbacks in total career yardage, passing yards, attempts and completion percentage. Mutryn signed a free agent contract with the New England Patriots in 1999 and competed against Drew Bledsoe, John Friesz and Michael Bishop during preseason, but did not make the final cut.

Screaming Eagles

MARCHING BAND

With more than 180 members, the “Screaming Eagles” Marching Band is the largest and most visible student organization at Boston College. Founded in 1919, the Eagles band has traveled around the world to represent Boston College at football games, parades and international celebrations. In addition to numerous domestic bowl game appearances, the band has performed at the Macy’s Thanksgiving Day parade, the Japan Bowl in Yokohama, Japan, and the Emerald Isle Classic in Dublin, Ireland.

Cheerleader and Pom Squad

Through an outstanding mix of academics and athletics, Boston College boasts a tradition of excellence through some of the top athletic teams in the country. As part of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), the Boston College cheerleaders and pom squad are a group of energetic and athletic students who are devoted to the traditions of BC and its school spirit. BC cheerleaders and pom squad not only cheer for top-caliber teams, but also enjoy travel to summer camp, football games, bowl games, postseason tournaments, and sometimes ... competition!

Both spirit teams have the opportunity to experience televised appearances and huge crowds. Our cheerleaders and pom squad enjoy the best seats in the house while both on and off the court, for all BC home sporting events. And thanks to a sponsorship by Under Armour, all cheerleaders enjoy Under Armour sneakers, warm-ups, T-shirts and sweatshirts and other Boston College gear. All seniors receive a book scholarship, and the entire team enjoys gymnastic lessons at a local gym at no cost.

Boston College cheerleading and pom squad both offer the chance to build long-lasting friendships, team camaraderie and the opportunity to experience BC athletics at its finest.

Dance Team and Color Guard

The Boston College Marching Band Golden Eagles Dance Team, along with the color guard, helps deliver an extra visual impact for the marching band throughout the Eagles’ football season. The “Screaming Eagles” Marching Band is an integral part of the Boston College game-day experience. The band brings spirit to the Superfans, inspires the Eagles to victory and promotes a positive atmosphere for all to enjoy.

The color guard is an integral part of the Boston College Marching Band that enhances the color and visual excitement of all performances. In addition to performing as part of the pre-game and halftime shows at every home football game, the color guard also performs during pep rallies.

Boston College

“EVER TO EXCEL”

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston’s Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education operating in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of approximately 14,200 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation’s top 20, also by US News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need. Each year, for example, BC undergraduates volunteer more than 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while 700 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto “ever to excel” also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University’s focus on the development of the whole person in mind, body and soul. BC offers 31 men’s and women’s varsity sports — all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level — and perennially has one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in Division IA.

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Sloan Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; Weston Observatory and Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies.

Boston College is ranked 31st among national universities by US News & World Report. Its Graduate School of Social Work is listed among the nation’s top 10, also by US News, while the graduate programs of its Lynch School of Education and its Connell School of Nursing are among the top 35. In addition, the Carroll School of Management was ranked 4th in Bloomberg/BusinessWeek’s “Top Undergraduate Business Programs 2015.” The University received nearly 29,000 applications for its 2,280-member Class of 2020, and is considered among the top American private research universities.

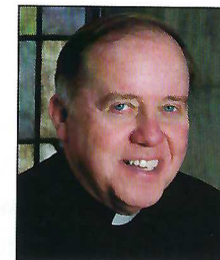

After more than 150 years of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

“Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith,” writes Reverend William P. Leahy, S.J., who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. “We believe that Boston College provides a transformative experience for young men and women.”

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty’s dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored by the MacArthur Foundation and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University’s overall

President

WILLIAM P. LEAHY, S.J.

William P. Leahy, S.J., became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, Nebraska, he grew up on his family’s farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of study at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor’s degree in philosophy and a master’s degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. He studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, earning a master’s degree in divinity and a master’s degree in sacred theology. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985. He is the author of the book Adapting to America: Catholics, Jesuits, and Higher Education in the Twentieth Century.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has earned its place among the country’s best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, the University’s endowment has more than doubled to $2.3 billion, among the nation’s largest; sponsored research grants have grown to $51 million annually; and need-based undergraduate financial aid has risen to $109 million, with BC being one of only 19 private universities that is need blind in admissions and meets the full demonstrated need of its students. In addition, more than 100 full-time faculty members have been added, AHANA student enrollment has climbed from 18 percent to 29 percent and annual cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to more than $100 million.

During his presidency, undergraduate applications to Boston College have doubled, with the University attracting students from all 50 states and 80 countries. BC undergraduates have earned more than 300 prestigious fellowships over the past decade, including Rhodes, Marshall and Truman scholarships and Fulbright fellowships. Student-athletes at Boston College excel at balancing the demands of academics and athletics, with BC consistently posting among the NCAA’s highest graduation rates.

Boston College continues to build on its strengths and accomplishments while focusing additional resources on undergraduate liberal arts education, student formation and integrated science research and teaching. The University also is committed to applying the strengths of its professional schools to resolve critical societal issues, to enhance BC’s international links, and to meet its goal of becoming the world’s leading Catholic university and theological center.

Blake James was named the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics at Boston College, effective July 1, 2022.

James is an experienced, nationally respected athletics administrator who established a student-athlete approach at Miami that focused on academic achievement, athletic success, and individual development. James served as the school's director of athletics from 2013-2021, leading the Hurricanes to multiple NCAA and ACC championships across numerous sports. In his role, he oversaw 18 varsity sports involving more than 400 student-athletes, with a staff of more than 250 individuals and an annual budget of $123 million.

In his first year at BC, the Eagles won an ACC Championship in women's lacrosse as BC also reached the National Championship game for the sixth consecutive season. Boston College baseball also made it back to the NCAA Tournament with a regional finals appearances. The Eagles' volleyball team claimed a National Championship by winning the 2022 National Invitational Volleyball Championship.

At Miami, he set records for athletics fundraising and led the completion of major capital projects, including new indoor facilities for football, baseball, and golf, and facility enhancements for men and women's basketball. He negotiated and managed one of the largest collegiate sports apparel deals in the country, and significantly increased ticket sales for the school's football and basketball programs.

A proven leader within the NCAA and ACC, James served on the NCAA Board of Directors (2017-2019), NCAA Board of Governors (2017-2019), the NCAA Football Oversight Committee (2015-2017), and held leadership roles on the NCAA Student Athlete Experience Committee (2019-2021). He also served as chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision making for all Division I athletics. Within the ACC, he served on the Football Committee, the NIL Committee, and the Finance and Audit Committee, and was named chair of the conference's athletics directors. He was selected as one of four recipients of the Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2016.

In announcing the appointment, University President William P. Leahy, S.J., praised James as an individual with the proven record of accomplishment to lead Boston College Athletics into the future.

"Blake brings extensive experience, understands the issues facing intercollegiate athletics today, and is committed to BC's mission," said Fr. Leahy. "I look forward to welcoming him to Boston College."

James said he is excited to become BC's next director of athletics and looks forward to beginning his role: "It is truly an honor to join the Boston College family as the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics," said James. "I am grateful to Fr. Leahy for the opportunity to lead the Eagles and for his confidence in me and in our shared vision for BC Athletics. We will strive for excellence in all of our pursuits in alignment with our Jesuit values. We will compete for championships with integrity, with incredible young men and women, and talented and compassionate coaches and staff supporting their journeys."

A graduate of Minnesota State University-Mankato with a degree in marketing, James earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University.

He began his athletic career at the University of Miami in tickets sales and development before moving to Providence College to work in athletic development. He later served as director of athletics at the University of Maine where he directed 19 Division I sports programs from 2005-2010, before returning to Miami as interim athletics director and senior associate A.D. for Development and Ticket Operations. He was named Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013.
