HATTERS TOP FSU CAGERS

50 Personal Fouls Called In Fracas

DELAND. — Florida State University's battling Seminole quintet dropped a 65-56 decision to the Stetson Hatters last night in a rough and tumble tilt that saw 50 personal fouls called against the two teams.

The Florida State five, unable to cope with the unerring marksmanship of sharp-shooting Jordan Maynard and lanky George Everett got off to a poor start and were unable to overhaul the high-scoring Hatters. Stetson led at half time 34-25.

Maynard Clicks

Maynard, who has led the Stetson attack this season, dropped in nine goals from the field and clicked five out of six times from the foul line to take scoring honors with 23 points.

Everett, Hatter pivotman, supported Maynard's assault with 17 points of his own.

Big Bill Kratzert, Florida State sparkplug and defensive ace, headed the Seminole attack with 16 points. Larry Dickson, lanky FSU shotmaker took runnerup honors with 13 markers.
