Seminole Forward Stars In Defeat

(Special to The Democrat)

JACKSON, Tenn. — The Florida State University Seminoles, playing their first game since the Christmas holidays, were knocked out of the undefeated ranks last night by Lambuth College of Jackson, Tenn. — which mowed them down 57-50 here.

Lambuth jumped ahead at the opening gun and was never headed although FSU moved within two or three points on several occasions.

The Seminoles Adams tossed in 16 markers to lead the way for both squads with Parker of Lambuth second with 15.

Both teams seemed to show the effects of their long layoff, with the ball-handling and breaking sluggish throughout.

FSU is slated to move into Union at Jackson tonight for the second tilt of the current three-game road tour. They play Southwestern at Memphis Thursday night.

Lambuth Eagles Win Over Florida Team By 57 to 50 Tab

It would be interesting to know how the basketball game between the Lambuth College Eagles and the Florida State University Seminoles would have come out on the Lambuth floor last night had both teams hit a decent average of their shots.

As it turned out, the Eagles hit the most, thereby winning, 57-50, to sack their third straight Dixie Conference win in that many times to the post.

Both teams missed from all corners, especially close corners, and the blame could probably be traced to Christmas overdoings.

The Eagles jumped off to a 2-0 lead, found themselves tied at 2-2, then went ahead to stay—even up to now. Richard Parker, Eagle standout on both defense and offense, cracked the ice first with a long one, followed by a corner shot by Art Adams.

Parker busted another one of the same variety and the Eagles were off to what is commonly known as the races.

At one time in the first half the Eagles led by 10 points—24-14. But the Seminoles found the range for a brief spell and the half ended 23-23, for the home team, natch.

Parker led the offensive attack with 15 points, followed by his running mate, Jack May, who staked claim to a dozen. Adams led for the visitors with 16, followed by Leen Benjamin with 13.
