

PENCE'S FOUL TOSS DECISIVE

Breaks Tie in Last 15 Seconds of Play

By JACK MANGUM

Bob Pence of Florida State University sank a free throw with 15 seconds to go last night in the West Campus gym to beat Oglethorpe's Stormy Petrels, 47-46.

The Petrels fought hard throughout the first half to stay in the ball game. But the Seminoles had too much strength and in the second half wore the invaders down, winning in the last minute with Pence's charity toss.

Wild Bill Counts

Wild Bill Weigel put the Seminoles ahead with a long shot in the final two minutes, 46-45. Then the Seminoles attempted to freeze the ball. Big Art Adams, playing one of his best games of the year, was fouled with 45 seconds to go and chose to take the ball out of bounds.

Dick Kendall fouled Quinn of Oglethorpe and the little forward sank it to tie up the game. Then with 15 seconds to go, Pence was fouled by Oglethorpe's Lorenz, to set the stage for his game-winning throw.

The Indians will meet the University of the South here Friday and Saturday nights in the West Campus gym. Last night's game was the last conference game for the Seminoles. The win gives them a final record of eight won and seven lost.
