

From the Daily Democrat
March 3, 1949, page 13

Lambuth Breaks Deadlock

In the consolation contest, Lambuth crawled out of a tie five times before holding the winning edge. Leo Leathers, Jack May, Tom Scott and Dick Parker were the Lambuth artillery. Parker got 14 points, the other three 11 each.

Florida State's forward Tom McLaughlin nicked the basket for 15 markers, and Lee Benjamin, who sparkled for FSU in the first half, made 14 points.

After the two encounters, the loop's nine coaches named the Dixie conference all-stars.

First team — Mack Williams, Tampa; Joe Robbins, Florida Southern college; Harold Parks, Howard college; Leo Leathers, Lambuth; Dick Parker, Lambuth.

Second team — Ed Benjamin, Stetson university; Bill Mullen, Tampa, and Glenn Wilkes, Mercer college.