

Florida State University's basketball squad, rusty from the lack of practice and stung by an 86-73 setback at the hands of David Lipscomb college in Nashville, Tenn., on Friday night, is scheduled to hold a Sunday workout at 3 this afternoon as the first step of preparation towards a rough week of play that lies ahead.

The Seminoles, who suffered their second setback of the season against five victories when they bowed to Lipscomb, tackle three toughies in a row this week when they bump into the University of Mississippi Rebels, Stetson's Hatters and the Southern Mocs.

OLE MISS TUESDAY

The Ole Miss game is slated in the West Campus gym here Tuesday night. Coach "Bud" Kennedy's Indians tackle Stetson here on Friday and Southern here on Saturday nights.

Ole Miss is supposed to have one of its strongest teams in years, winning six of its first eight games including three Southeastern Conference victories.

Coach Loren Ellis has rounded up a bunch of 6-9, 6-7 and 6-6 skyscrapers at Stetson, and Southern is supposed to be vastly improved since being trounced by the Seminoles in Lakeland early in the season.

Coach Kennedy said yesterday that his Seminoles have got a lot of kinks to iron out and a lot of work to do on defense before they tackle the Rebels here Tuesday—hence the Sunday workout.

The Indians, who were beaten by Miami in their last start before the Christmas holidays, got off to a running start against Lipscomb Friday, grabbing a quick 11-5 lead. But the Bisons, who had dumped Vanderbilt 59-57 early in the week, came back and went out in front 24-15 at the 10 minute mark. By the halftime it was 41-27 as the Tennesseans kept hitting from the field with amazing accuracy—during the night they clicked on 32 to 78 attempts from the field for a terrific 42 per cent.

INDIANS RALLY

Paced by big Tom McLaughlin, who turned in a great second half performance, the Seminoles started moving after the intermission and pulled up to 56-65 with 10 minutes to play.

Still driving, FSU climbed within seven points of the Bisons before finally running out of gas and allowing the Bisons to pull away just before the final whistle.

McLaughlin and Bob Hartman piled up 21 points apiece to pace the Indians.

Money-penny, Bison pivot, slammed 23 points through the cords to lead Lipscomb, but it was the shooting of Majors that featured the victory. The hawk-eyed guard connected on seven of nine shots from the field—all from near the center of the court.
