

Special to The Democrat

WINTER-PARK—Beaten 58-48 by the Stetson Hatters last night, Florida State University's basketball team was scheduled to go out after an even break in their two-game invasion of South Florida tonight when they meet the Rollins Tars in a return game.

The Seminoles won the opener between the two teams in Talia-

FSU	G	F	P	Stetson	G	F	P
Whitmer, f	2	4	8	Reinking, f	3	0	8
Alberston, f	0	0	0	Imgrund, g	3	1	7
Westhafer, f	1	1	7	Carlin, f	1	4	6
Benson, f	1	0	1	Peterson, f	1	0	2
McLaughlin, c	7	4	18	Hansel, c	3	4	14
Quinn, g	2	2	6	Yonge, c	0	2	3
Burr, g	0	0	0	Taveliere, g	3	2	12
Gordon, g	3	1	7	Akin, g	2	0	4
				Oksnee, g	0	1	1
				Smith, g	0	0	0
				Ross, g	1	1	3

Totals	18	12	48	Totals	21	10	58
Florida State	18	13	12	7-48
Stetson	18	14	15	11-58

Free throws missed: FSU—McLaughlin 4, Gordon 2, Stetson—Imgrund 3, Peterson, Yonge 3, Taveliere.

hassee when they fashioned a 74-71 triumph.

The Seminoles and Tars are currently battling for fifth place in state college cage standings.

Stetson, rolling up its 10th win against only two losses, grabbed an 18-16 lead in the first quarter and held a 32-29 margin at half-time. The Hatters pulled ahead