

The Rollins game was a case of too much Barker as the high-scoring Tar poured 25 points through the hoops to lead his club to its triumph.

Sluggish in the first half, FSU trailed 39-23 at the intermission before coming to life and almost pulling the game out with another second half flurry.

The box score:

FLA. STATE (55)				ROLLINS (69)
	fg	ft	tp		fg	ft	tp
Whimer, f	8	2	14	MacHardy, f	7	4	12
McLaughlin, f	3	4	16	Williams, f	3	4	10
Westhafer, f	3	0	6	Bocock, f	2	0	4
Pence, f	3	0	4	Barker, c	8	6	25
Gordon, c	8	2	12	Butler, g	1	4	8
Quinn, g	0	1	1	Rago, g	1	2	4
Burst, g	1	0	2	Cost, g	0	0	0
Albertson, g	0	0	0	Seyler, g	1	0	2

Totals	22	11	55	Totals	23	22	89
Florida State	12	11	31	11--55
Rollins	11	22	13	13--62

Free throws missed: Fla. State—McLaughlin 3, Gordon, Westhafer, Rollins—Williams, Barker 2, Rago 1.