

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)
—Mississippi State downed Davidson 89-82 tonight to reach the finals of the consolation round of the carousel basketball tournament.

Florida State, 86-52 winner over Boston University, will meet Mississippi State tomorrow afternoon for the consolation crown. Boston will play Davidson for seventh place.

Wake Forest will meet Colgate for a place in the championship final against Clemson, 89-86 upset winner over Tennessee.

Boston U. needed over eight minutes to make its first basket as Florida State opened up an early 14-2 lead which grew to 44-27 at the half.

Flashy guard Jim Oliver poured in 29 points and center Gary Wold contributed 25 to direct the Seminole attack. Oler, who had 19 points in the first half dropped 17 of 19 from the free throw lines.

Leading the disorganized Boston attack with 12 points each were guards Mario Sottile and Dick Armstrong. Kevin Thomas, the big center who poured in 46 points against Tennessee yesterday, was held to 11 points today and sat out much of the last half.
