

WINTER PARK, Jan. 10 (AP)—Clutch shooting by Jimmy Oler clinched for Florida State a 71-70 basketball victory over Rollins last night and preserved the Seminoles' perfect record in Florida Intercollegiate Conference play.

Oler poured in 34 points in all but his most valuable shots came after Rollins, trailing earlier by as much as 12 points, pulled ahead 54-52 in the second half. He erased the deficit with two free throws and a basket, then hit 10 of his team's last 14 points.

The triumph was FSU's fifth in the conference. Rollins now has lost all four of its conference games.
