BATON ROUGE, La. — Forward Jim Crisco sank a layup with two seconds left to stifle Florida State's comeback bid and give Louisiana State a 67-65 victory here last night.

It was the fifth straight loss, al on the road, for Coach Bud Kennedy's Seminoles, who now own a 2-5 season mark.

Prior to Crisco's game-winning two-pointer. Seminole guard Tom Garcia, subbing for injured Hugh Durham, had dropped two free throws to knot the count at 65-65, with nine seconds remaining,

The Seminoles came from 12 points behind early in the secend half, and at one time held a four-point margin over the Bengals.

Center Lynn Moon kept the Bengals close, hitting well from inside. Moon shared LSU scoring honors for the night with guard Dom Merle. Each tallying 14 points.

Seminole guard Jim Liteky was the game's high scorer, tallying 22 points, mainly on the fast break and with driving layupe Garcia had 15 for the Tribes.

The diffdrence in scoring proved to be from the field. LSU dropped 25 of 68 attempts for .373, while the Seminoles canned 23 of 72 for .320

Liteky, with his 22-point production, took over the team scoring lead for the Seminoles with 118 points, to forward Burt Deckel's 114.

The Seminoles take a 13-day holiday layoff now, before resuming their schedule in the Senior Bowl tournament in Mobile, Ala., Jan. 1-2.
