Durham, who entered the game as one of the nation's highest scorers with a 22.9 average, managed but one field goal and a single free throw as the Gents doubled and triple-teamed him.

Centenary and the Seminoles swapped leads early before the hosts took a 24-20 edge at half-time of the rough-and-tumble game.

With Centenary padding its lead and the game getting rougher after intermission, Coach Bud Kennedy rested Durham on the bench for the last 10 minutes.

Four Centenary players hit double figures, with Gerald Martello leading with 21 points. Jim Liteky bagged 18 for the Seminoles and center Dan Bates got 14.

Guard Don Bates, who carried a fine 19.5-point average into the game, scored only eight points. Durham's average dipped to 22.6, Bates' to 18.6.

It was the last game of a two-game road trip for the Tribe, scheduled to fly back into Tallahassee today. The Seminoles host vastly improved Loyola of New Orleans at Tallahassee Saturday night.
