A. Tully Gym audience of 3,000 re watched Coach Bud Kennedy's Seminoles open the 1980-st cam- so paign on the right igot with a new "shuffle" offense that rolled up 47 first-half points and 41 after intermission.

QUICK PUSH

FSU domination of the backboards and Tampa's early ineptness from the field were major factors. The Seminoles sprinted to a 13-3 margin before the visitors managed their first field goal. There were 7/2 minutes gone by that time.

Swain, the 64 former All-Stater from Jacksonville Landon, pumped in 22 points for individual honors. His best previous high for rsty was 17 points last season against. Jacksonville University and Georgia. Swain hil 9 of 12 shots from the floor and four of five free throws.

Sharing runnerup scoring bondi ora were junior forward Dave Feder and sophomore forward Paurest Cougle of Louisville, Ky. y Both Fedor, hitting below his 21.1point sophomore average, and Coogle, the hyghtest of four sopis making their debut, canned 15 points.

"Swain's play was as good as he's ever played," said a wellpleased Kennedy after the game, te shortly before he departed by bus. h for Lexington, Ky where the Seminoles collide with nationallyranked Kentucks tomorrow night. The team will fly into Lexington - tóday

"I thought we worked our new patterns real well." Kennedy add-) ed "And we did a fine ich helping each other on delense.

NOT READY

Tampa Coach Bob Lavoy, who is T watched the Spartans lose their ! ie 17th game in 26 starts against c. FSU, said his young squad wasn to - ready for the Seminoles' haifts court pressing defense "We didn't cum one offensive play all night, 1 Lavov said

"Their shuffle offense worked at real well. If they keen improving, they are going to be tough," ..

en Lavov concluded sat The Seguinole attack, designed ig to get belief shots closer in was red-hot notil the final five minutes, when reserves failed to score. PSC hit on 34 of 72 fieldgoal attempts—a fine 47.2 per cent. Tampa managed only 25 per cent on 16 of 64 shots from the floor.

With Fedor (14), Coogle (15) and Swain (9) the big rebounders, the Seminoles controlled the board, 74-42.

against Kentucky tomorrow night, however. The Wildcats won their 33rd straight season opener at home last night, frimming VMI in routing fashion, 72-56.

Fedor got the Tribe off to a 2-0 start last night with a whirling, left-hand hook shot from 10 feet out. The Tribe made it 13-3 before Tampa center Chuck Engelking bucketed the first Spartan field goal. With Swain hitting 13 first-half points, FSU rated to a 47-28 advantage at intermission.

HEFTY LEAD

spread to 15 points at the outset of the second half. But Coogle and Fedor warmed up and the Seminoles had a 38 point bulge (88-50) with five minutes left.

Tampa pared the final margin to 28 points against FSU reserves.

Guard Bill Cotton, junior letterman, was a fourth Seminole to hit double figures. He tossed multiple in points and 10 of 11 Seminoles who played got in the scoring act.

Engelking paced Tampa with in 14 points, six on free throws.
