Special To The Democrat MADISON, Wis. State's basketball team fell in the final 12 seconds here last night when Don Hearden sank a 12-foot jump shot to give Wisconsin a 64-63 triumph.

FSU tried to pull it out, calling time with nine seconds left. Taking it out under the Wisconsin basket, FSU's Dale Ricketts got it across mid court, passed down in the corner to FSU's Dale Reeves, a 6-7 sophomore.

His jumper rimmed the basket, and the Seminoles' Ray Swain grabbed it, dropped it back in - but after the horn had sounded, officials ruled.

It was FSU's second straight setback in as many starts againat Big Ten Conference competition. Ohio State whipped the Tribe Saturday night.

Last night's encounter was close all the way, with the score lead changing hands seven and sinking the foul shot.
