

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. —

Going the last 10 minutes with only four buckets from the field, Florida State's basketball team yielded to Alabama, 72-57, here Wednesday night.

Larry Adcock, the big scorer for the winners, put his club ahead to stay with a jump shot from the corner with 10:54 left in the game. That made it 40-47, Alabama.

While FSU was getting 10, the Tide assaulted the nets for 23 points.

Adcock hit 18 for the winners. He hit half of his 16 shots from the field, sank both his attempts from the free throw line.

Three more Alabama players hit in double figures. James Booth collected 17, 16 of them from the field. Gary Blagburn and 6-5 Howard Smith got 10 apiece.

* Ray Swain, making good on ft nine of 12 field goal tries for
7. 75 per cent accuracy, led the Seminoles with 19 points.

e Dave Fedor, hitting 3-of-3 from the foul line, notched 15. His six field goals set a new school career high of 510.

p That eclipsed the old record of 508 set by Ham Wernke during 1962-65, a period of four seasons. Fedor's record was established during three seasons.

The loss put the Seminole all even at 7-7. It was the identical score of FSU's opening game with Ohio State.

Alabama stands 7-10 for the year.

During the first 30 minutes of playing time, it was close. The lead changed hands 14 times, 11 in the first half, three times in the second. The count was tied 11 times; seven in the first, four in the second.

After a 30-30 tie at halftime, Swain sank two quick jump shots to give FSU its longest lead (34-30) with less than a minute gone in the second half.

With 11:34 left, Larry Adcock brought Alabama ahead once more, 46-45. Swain's jumper 28 seconds later, tied it at 47-47. That was as close as FSU got.

The Seminole squad moves on to Oklahoma City for a clash there Saturday night.
