Democrat Sports Editory Florida State, hopefully was a bit readier for tomorrow night's tussle at Kentucky a five a dealing Allabama's basketball team its first loss of the young season where last right. Gettings their plast, 10 polis from the free-throw line, the Seminoles toppled the Crimeou Tide by 72-63. FSU plays highly rated Ken g tucky, then rests for a week, L renewing its schedule against Auburn here on the 21st. Though FSU never trailed and a runaway seemed in prospect during the early stages, Alabama rallied vigorously and it, was a Ħe real wrestle almost all of the se last half. P.s. Μt TOP WORK Fr 0r With Charley, Long, and Jerry Th Shirley providing the spark with 81a Оw their scoring and rebounding, He FSU controlled the boards and TO enjoyed greater efficiency from j H the field. The Tribe had a 50to-38 margin in rebounding, sank 49.2 per cent of 59 field goal tries while Alabama hit just 35.4 -Soc of per cent of its 65 shots. .;A Long got 16 points and 10 re-FRD bounds. Shirley 15 and 13. Alabama, which returned just on the: one starter from a team that to . went 11-and-15 last year, had won its first two starts of this CLO T season, over Southwestern Louis-lana (55-53) and Southern Miss-Rob with isippi (71-52). thro

The Seminoles, with one starter back, too, now stand 3-and-2 after beating Tampa and Valdosta State, losing to Florida and Au-burn. Alabama, with one senior listed on a roster of 15, started an all-home-state lineup and quickly 0 FSU shot in front. Both teams were rather hot Ĺ F at the beginning. FSU dropped in its first four attempts from the field, Alabama its first three, р R al Soon FSU enjoyed its biggest lead-,4 of the evening, at 24-12, Alabama closed within 26-22 range, but with Long connecting on some key ones from far out the Seminoles pulled away again, st to 37-27. âtì CLOSE GOING iđ Then the Tide rallied again. s with 16 points, got four three È throws and Hinton Butler a fielder and al free one to narrow things to 37-34 at halftime On two straight buckets by James Booth, the Tide caught up for the first and only time at 42-42. In a brief spn thereafter Wally Dale poured in all of his six points for the evening-three fielders to pace a 57.50 FSU lead Then Alabama pulled within 57-55 range Shirley worked a 3points play for easier breathing. But with about four minutes left Alabama was mighty close again, at 61-60.

The pressure was on the visitors: FSU drew a succession, of foul shots. And the Seminoles, who had put just four points on the board from the charity line up until then, got 10 free ones. Long collected on 6-of-6 in those last minutes 5-9-1 A -

Dale Reeves, bagging six, of seven field-goal tries, had 12 tp 16 points and Rete Rogers 11 in the 15 FSU cause. Booth who shot a 12 whapping 19 times from the field 4 and made good on seven, had . 6, 11 14 for Alabama, and Butler got
