

FT. WORTH—An inspired Florida State effort fell short Thursday night as the Seminoles absorbed their fourth setback of the young basketball in a 66-60 game with Texas Christian University.

Coach Bud Kennedy's cagers hit 43.9 per cent from the floor, but it wasn't enough for victory as the Horned Frogs stayed a jump ahead throughout the game.

Florida State forwards Gary Schull and Pete Rogers were the game's top pointmakers, Guard Pete Gonzalez, with 12, each cutting the nets for 17. was the No. 3 Seminole.

TCU had a 36 - 33 margin in rebounds.

The Seminoles have a 1-4 record now, with their next action set for Dec. 21 against Tampa at Tallahassee.
