Schull, a 6-7 senior, was the big boy, as he figures to be. His accuracy appeared a little off, as was the team's as a whole, and his 22 came on an 8-for-22 showing from the field and 6-for-10 at the foul line.

Schull led FSU in rebound-it to 71-64. Tech regained the ball and was moving down-court again when Stewart stole from Moore to ease the pressure.

But the Seminoles hit none from the floor in that final 4:28. It was well that they had the cushion.

FSU freshmen started the evening by handing well-regarded Chipola Junior College of Marianna its first loss in four starts 77-71.
