LIVELY SPORTS REPORT

One of Gary Schull's best nights on a basketball floor was enough to lift him into an elite class at Florida State last night.

The Pompano Beach senior, a 6-8, led, scored in 21 points and pulled down 27 rebounds as the Seminoles tripped Jacksonville 75-61. The Seminoles, who had struck off their first-ever victory over the Jacksonville 19-24.

Schull became only the sixth player in FSU history to score 1,000 points in varsity action. A basket with 4:50 to play put him over the mark.

The crowd of 2,600 gave him a standing ovation.

Schull now has 1,002 points. That puts him two ahead of Ray Swain ('59-'62) who got an even 1,000.

Other 1,000-pointers for FSU: Jimmy Oler ('59-'64) 1,520; Dave Fegans ('59-'62) 1,453; Hugh Durham ('56-'58) 1,381; Ham Wernke ('61-'65) 1,404.

Both Oler and Wernke had 4-year varsity careers, at a time when the Seminoles played freshmen on the top squad.

Schull, who retired to the bench with 3:15 left, approached a single-game rebound record of 32 by Rick Benson against Florida Southern in '55.

Jacksonville went almost seven minutes without a field goal as the game opened and the Seminoles, off to an 11-1 lead, were never in trouble.

It was 36-17 at halftime, with

FSU hitting a hot 87 per cent of its field-goal attempts at that point, Jacksonville a weak

18 per cent. The Seminoles ended with 50 per cent from the field, versus Jacksonville's 23 per cent.

FSU dominated the board throughout, pulled down 54 to Jacksonville's 32.

Bill Peacock chipped in 18 points for the Seminoles, now 11-9 with Georgia Tech coming up next, in Atlanta on Monday.

Jacksonville, 2-9 for the season, was led by Dick Fret's 15.

Florida State freshmen won a preliminary from Jacksonville's yearlings 75-68, with Rich Campbell leading the Baby Seminoles with 23 points. Jim Geller got 17.

The FSU Freshmen are now 10-6.
