EVANSVILLE — Florida State's three-game basketball victory streak was snapped 76-67 by Evansville Saturday night in the finals of the Evansville Invitational Tournament.

The Seminoles, down by over 20 points early in the second half, came roaring back to within five at one point, but couldn't quite catch the host outfit, which now owns an 8-1 record.

FSU was left with a 6-4 mark.

Big Dave Cowens, who scored 32 points Friday night as FSU defeated George Washington 94-69, was held to 12 by Evansville. Jeff Hogan paced the Seminoles with 18, while Darrel Stewart, who was awarded the sportsmanship trophy, had 11.
