1994 ACC Basketball Tournament
Game 4 -- Coaches Quotes

Final -- North Carolina 83 Florida State 69

Dean Smith, North Carolina:

"We are delighted to win over a very quick Florida State team. Rasheed Wallace was all over the place rebounding. Eric Montross played well, although he couldn't hit his free throws. Stackhouse helped us with his foul shots. It was a tremendous victory over a dangerous Florida State team.

"We are a team defense. Florida State plays a defense that allows you to take any shot you want. That is hard for a player like Jerry [Stackhouse] because every shot he sees is good. He has adjusted very well and he and Wallace are now experience and are a vital part of our team. Donald [Williams] played great basketball throughout this game, passing, defense.

"With Florida State's smaller lineup, we had to play them like we always have and realize we aren't as quick. Derrick [Phelps] did just a good job on Sura and Bryan Reese did a good job on Graham. We had a hand in their face every time they tried to shoot. We just had to grind it out and be selective.

"I think we are a good basketball team - not a great basketball team. We have played two, or two and a half if you count the second half of the Wake Forest game, back-to-back games very well. We are thrilled to be where we are. We may have exceeded our potential, but the next week is what really counts now."

Pat Kennedy, Florida State:

"Congratulations to North Carolina on staying with thier game plan. Tonight we were trying to take more seconds off of the clock to make up for our lack of inches. The lack of inches in terms of defending really hurt us.

"I give a lot of credit to North Carolina, Wallace (Rasheed) in particular. He is one of the finest players in the country. I've said that from the start of the season after seeing him on tape. Stackhouse (Jerry) and Wallace are the difference for them (North Carolina's team) right now. Wallace and Stackhouse are freshmen and have to learn to play in this league and learn to be alert and confident for forty minutes.

"Making shots was the key to this kind of upset. We needed to shoot about 60% to get this kind of win. Obviously, running a four-guard set and trying to pull this kind of upset does put some pressure on the guards to make those shots.

"Wallace killed us. He played 31 minutes and trying to defend Montross (Eric) is hard enough. Wallace was definetly the difference. Both Duke and North Carolina are outstanding teams and both could be playing for the national championship."
