TARS SWEEP FSU SERIES

Take Weekend Tilts
20-5 and 8-5

The Rollins Tars swept their two-game weekend series with Florida State University with an 8-5 win over the Seminoles in Centennial field last night.

The Tars had taken the opener 20-5 Friday night.

Big John Grey, hero of the opening win, came back to the mound last night to throttle a ninth-inning rally and preserve the Tars margin.

Tars Rally

The Tars, trailing 4-2 after the first five innings of play, staged a pair of three-run outbursts in the sixth and eighth to rack up their triumph.

Saurbrun, who went the first five innings before being removed for a pinch hitter in the Tars sixth, received credit for the win.

Jim Covello, who was pounded from the hill in the first inning of Friday's tilt, came in to work until the ninth before giving way to Grey.

Lefty Sam Cox went all the way on the FSU mound.
