Rangy Ed Sessions spaced out 10 Choc hits over the nine inning route to notch his fifth win of the season against a lone defeat. The tall Tallahassee righthander fanned five and walked only two in registering the triumph.

his pitching percentage, he was finally stopped at the plate. The slender sophomore, who went into the Choc game batting .733 with 11 hits in 15 trips to the plate, was held hitless in three times at bat. His average is still way up there in the .611 bracket despite his hitless day.

Lee Bailey, Ronald Melton, Glen Gresham and Augie Pompella supplied Sessions with all the punch he needed.

Bailey and Melton banded home runs and Gresham and Pompella contributed three hits apiece to the Seminoles' 14-hit attack. Two of Gresham's blows were doubles.
