

The clutch home run punch of an old pro proved the downfall of Florida State University's freshman-laden diamond nine here yesterday, and Jacksonville Navy extracted a 7-4 win from the Tribe. The win enabled the Navy team to even the two-game series.

With two out in the top of the ninth, two runners on, the score at 4-4, Lucky Luttrell, former Washington Senator hireling with Orlando of the Florida State League, changed the picture. Luttrell sent one of Wally Higginbotham's offerings some 400 feet into the outer left field garden and it spelled homer.

Until the ill-fated ninth Higginbotham, who had relieved starter Ed Lockard in the fourth, had yielded but one hit. The loss snapped a four-game win streak for the locals and gives them a 10-6-1 record.

Luttrell's game-winning homer followed a hit by George Ligon and a walk by Jim Coughlin.

FSU had tied the score in the eighth at 4-4. Captain Billy Mills had walked, moved to second on Billy Campbell's sacrifice and scored on Max Long's blow.

Ed Lockard had started on the mound for the Tribe but the big right hander was driven to the showers when he was touched for three runs in the fourth.

Three Seminoles got two hits apiece. Mills and Long had two singles while Bob Hudson got a single and a double.

FSU is idle until April 24 when it opens a two-game series with Georgia Teachers in Statesboro.
