

Big Inning Gives Seminoles Victory

Special To The Democrat

STATESBORO, Ga., Apr. 25—(Special)—Florida State University set an eight-run bomb off under the Georgia Teachers in the fourth frame today and went on to beat the Profs 15-6 for an even break in the two-game series.

Ralph Blinn's grand-slam homer was the big blow of the fourth inning explosion. Blinn's homer was one of three hit by the Seminoles, who Friday were a victim of the Teachers four four-base clouts. Starter Wally Higginbotham and Manny Yglesias hit the other circuit socks for FSU.

Tuesday FSU comes back into Georgia to play a single game with the Georgia Bulldogs.
