

Special To The Democrat.

STATESBORO, Ga., April 30—Florida State continued its hitting spree against Georgia Teachers here today, hammering 14 hits for a 12-2 waltz over the Professors.

Today's triumph, coupled with yesterday's 10-3 verdict over the Profs. ran FSU's record to 14-5 with four games to play. Two-game series with Georgia at Athens Monday and Tuesday and Stetson at DeLand next weekend wraps up FSU's 23-game baseball program.

Southpaw John Ash gave up only six hits today in claiming his fourth triumph against one loss. His only difficulties came from the six walks he allowed.

Ash was his own best support at the plate with three singles, a double, and a run-producing fly. Second baseman Billy Campbell had four hits to give him seven for the series.

FSU broke the game open in the second, when, with two out, Carlee Hendrix and Gale Tuggle doubled, Bob Vaughn tripled, and Ash and Campbell doubled for five runs.

FSU 12 2 0 0—12 14 3

GTC 2 6 0 0—2 6 0

Ash and Vaughn; Little and Ford.

FSU Scores 12-2 Victory Over Georgia Teachers

STATESBORO, Ga., April 30—
(P)—Florida State University made it two straight over Georgia Teachers College today, this time 12-2. FSU won yesterday 10-3.

Lefthander John Ash gave up only six hits, his only difficulties coming from the six walks he allowed.

Ash was his own best support at the plate with three singles, a double and a run producing fly ball. Second Baseman Billy Campbell had four hits to give him seven for the series.

Six players divided the GTC hits, with Jimmy Ford's double off the left field fence in the seventh being the best hit.

					R	H	E
FSU	051	202	020	—12	14	3
GTC	000	100	100	—2	6	9

Ash and Vaughn; Little and Fore.

Seminoles Wallop Ga. Teachers, 12-2

STATESBORO, Ga., April 30
(P) — Florida State University made it two straight over Georgia Teachers College today, this time 12-2. FSU won yesterday 10-3.

Lefthander John Ash gave up only six hits, his only difficulties coming from the six walks he allowed.

Ash was his own best support at the plate with three singles, a double and a run producing fly ball. Second Baseman Billy Campbell had four hits to give him seven for the series.

Ash was his own best support at the plate with three singles, a double and a run producing fly ball. Second Baseman Billy Campbell had four hits to give him seven for the series.

Florida state broke the game open in the second when with two out, Carl Hendrix and Gale Tuggle doubled, Bob Vaughn tripled and Ash and Campbell doubled for five runs.

The wind blew in hard toward the plate, giving the outfielders trouble all afternoon. GTC's Clyde Little pitched much better ball than the score indicates, nine errors behind behind him and several wind-blown doubles contributing to his first loss of the year after four wins.