Backed up by a seven-run first inning, Tom Garcia pitched Florida State to the championship in its own invitational baseball tournament here last night.

Garcia hurled a four-hitter as the Seminoles pounded Illinois 12-8 in an anti-climatic game. PSU had edged Wisconsin 4-3 in the semifinals Wednesday with a dramatic ninth-inning finish.

The little Seminole righthander joined Wisconsin's George Schmid and West Virginia's Jim Helse in pitching the third abutout of the tourney but an oddity saved Garcia.

FORGOT TO TOUCH

In the sixth inning illinois' John Varda sent a fast ball into the bleachers in left field for an apparent home run but was called out for failing to touch first base.

The victory left the champion Seminoles with a 6-1 tournament record and a 14-1 season mark. The only defeat was to West Virginia, 13-12.

In consolation games yesterday Wisconsin earned third place with a 5-3 triumph over Notre Dame and West Virginia trimmed Brown 19-2 for fifth.

Fiorida State, getting back to its regular schedule, is scheduled to play Wisconsin tonight at Ft. Walton Beach in the third meeting between the clubs. In addition to the semifical win, FSU edged the Madgers 5-3 in a second round game.

FLASHY START

In the title contest with lillnois, Florida State scored seven runs in the first frame without benefit of an Illini error. Six hits and five walks accounted for the splurge, with Lee Corso and Fred Twomey driving in two runs apiece.

The Seminoles added one in the third when Owen McCarron singled, stole second and scored on Dick Houser's hit. Gary Ashley's three run honser, Phil Hunt's double and Houser's second straight base blow closed out the PSU scoring in the fourth.

Garcia, in his first starting assignment of the year, allowed only one Illinois runner to reach third and he was saught off base.

Houser, Axhley, Twomey and Bob Rosell hit safely twice for FSU and John Kating collected a pair of hits for the Illini.

IRISH BRATEN

Wisconsin's Schmid picked up his second straight tourney win in the Badgers' victory over Notre Dame.

Schmid hurled a six-hitter, struck out seven and did not give up a free pass.

John, DeMeritt's fifth tournament home run put Wiscousin out in front 2-8 in the first inning.

The Badgers ploked up two more in the third on three hits and an error by Notre Dame out-lielder Dan Nespe. The final Wisconsin tally came in the seventh on Ken Tewnsend's double, snother Irish miscue and Jim Schulte's infield out.

Held to three hits, Notre Daine bunched three more in the eighth to acore a trio of runs, Elmer Kohorst's second triple of the game drove in two of the runs.

Brown lost its fourth tournament contest in a row and the second to West Virginia.
