

Special to The Democrat

FORT WALTON, April 7.—Tony Avilable pitched a one-hitter here tonight as Florida State's baseball team edged Wisconsin 1-0 in an exhibition game.

Avilable allowed only a single by John DeMeritt, batting champion of the FSU Day National tournament, and struck out 13.

Wisconsin's Sheldon Rusch also struck 13 and gave up four runs, half of them in the fourth when the Seminoles scored the winning run.

Dick Houser singled in the inning, stole second and raced home on Lee Corne's single. Shortstop Pete Short pitched up the only error of the night.

It was the fourth game of the season with the Seminoles and FSU with a 3-1 edge.

Florida State's lineup was: Russ and Townsend, Avilable and Vaughn.

FSU WINS, 1-0

Special to The Democrat

FORT WALTON, April 7—Tony Avitable pitched a one-hitter here tonight as Florida State's baseball team edged Wisconsin 1-0 in an exhibition game.

Avitable allowed only a single by John DeMeritt, batting champion of the FSU Invitational tournament, and struck out 13.

Wisconsin's Sheldon Rusch also fanned 13 and gave up four hits, half of them in the fourth when the Seminoles scored the winning run.

Dick Houser singled in the inning, stole second and raced home on Lee Corso's bingle. Shortstop Phil Hunt picked up the only other hits off Rusch.

It was the fourth game of the season with the Badgers and left FSU with a 3-1 edge.

Wisconsin	000 000 000—0 1 2
Florida State	000 100 00x—1 4 1

Rusch and Townsend; Avitable and Vaughn.