

Florida State shelled three Camp Lejeune pitchers for 16 hits and coasted to a 14-4 exhibition victory over the North Carolina Marines here yesterday.

The teams were set for a Seminole Field doubleheader today, starting at 1 p.m.

Letterman first baseman Charlie Rodgers collected four straight hits, including a triple, and third baseman Dale Koch and leftfielder Doug Walker had three hits apiece for the Seminoles. Sophomore shortstop Jack Dull of Tallahassee clouted a 350-foot, three-run homer.

FSU's Duni Nelson worked three hitless innings and Frank Davis gave up seven singles over the last six innings.
