

Michigan State's Spartans combined tight pitching with timely hitting to top Florida State, 8-2, in the final game of the Seminoles' eight-team invitational baseball tournament at Centennial Field last night.

It was Michigan State's second victory of the day. The Spartans clipped arch-rival Michigan, 1-0, and Western Michigan trimmed Duke, 5-3, in other games yesterday.

Yesterday's results left Illinois as the unofficial tournament champion. The Illini won five of six games before leaving the round-robin tournament Wednesday. Western Michigan, the pre-tourney favorite, finished second with a 5-2 standing.

Other tournament showings included North Carolina, 2-1; FSU, 6-4; Michigan State, 3-4; Duke, 3-5; Florida, 1-3, and Michigan, 1-6.

Coach Danny Litwhiler's Seminoles had at least one victory over every team in the tournament save North Carolina. FSU dropped a 9-7 verdict to North Carolina in the opening game of the tournament.

A three-run third inning gave Michigan State an edge the Seminoles couldn't overcome last night. Spartan righthander Craig Van Sciever—coming on after the Tribe had faced a chain of lefthand pitchers throughout the tournament—handcuffed the Seminoles on three hits over the last five and two-thirds innings.

Jerry Hohne was tagged with the loss, his third. Michigan State reached Hohne and relievers Carl Nelson and Ron Fraser for nine hits, two each by third baseman Jerry Lumianski and centerfielder Dean Look.

Michigan State rightfielder John Russell may have set some sort of record with four sacrifices in the nine-inning game.

Russell moved up Spartan runners with bunts in the first, fifth, seventh, and ninth innings.

First baseman Doug Walker led FSU's 7-hit attack with two singles.

After their 6-4 tournament performance, the Seminoles now have won 14 of 19 games for the season. FSU hosts Florida in a pair of regular-season games here next Friday and Saturday.

Michigan State turned back arch rival Michigan 1-0 on a weird first inning home run by rightfielder John Russell yesterday afternoon.

Western Michigan whipped Duke 5-3 in an earlier game.

With one out in the first inning, Russell hit a towering fly to left center field. Michigan left fielder Jim Dickey and centerfielder John Mogg collided, allowing the ball drop safely and roll to the fence. Russell circled the bases for the game's only run.

Michigan State's righthander Dick Radatz allowed nine hits but put down Michigan threats in the 7th and 9th innings. Michigan had scoring and winning runs on second and third in the last of the ninth but Radatz retired both hitter Bob Kucker for the final out.

Western Michigan scored twice in the ninth inning to whip Duke.

It was the final tournament appearance for both teams. Western Michigan won five of its seven games. Duke won three and lost five.

Singles by Bill Ortlieb, pitcher, and Len Graber, right fielder, and a double by Larry Randall brought home Western Michigan's winning runs in the last inning. Ortlieb allowed 7 hits and struck out 10 in winning his second game in the tournament.

Western Michigan got 11 hits off Duke's Melvin Williams. West. Michigan 100 000-5 11 4 Duke 102 000-3 7 1 Ortlieb and Graber; Williams and Browning, Kucker.

Michigan State 000 000-1 3 0 Michigan 000 000-0 9 0 Kadatz and Ortlieb; Kucker, Liska-nik (3) and Byrnes.
