Florida State's solid-hitting baseball nine bounced back from an earlier defeat by Auburn to subdue the Tigers, 22-8, at Seminole Field yesterday.

The final game in the three-game series is set for 2:30 today with sephosics betthender Ray Moshiere due to pitch for the Sections.

Vistims of his innings in their, provious two games, the Seminoise sense up with some multiple-run misery for Auburn yesterday. The Tribe scored six runs as 10 men came to bet in the third inning and sent 18 betters to the plate in a ninerun seventh inning.

The Seminoles combined 14 hits, nine Auburn walks, five Tiger errors, and seven stolen bases for their biggest run total since 1956.

Nine Seminoles joined in the hit parade with centerfielder Bob Clera setting a triple and three singles. Team captain Ray Bussell smacked a triple and home run—his second in as many days—and catcher Bill Westebdick of Tallahassee had a single and home run.

Frank Davis, see righthander from Miami, picked up his third victory of the young season, allowing nine hits and four runs in the seven innings he worked. Davis has three of the four FSU triumphs this season. The Trine has lost two.

The Section less had Auburn in trouble sarly seedling five select in a three-run that instite.

Highlight was a deliged worth straig seed with first beauting. John Slaton safe at second and left-fielder Gene McCornatt seedling home.

Centerfield Larry Michols paced Auburn with a double and two singles. Starting pitcher Bob Baker was the loos.
