

Florida State's invitational baseball tournament picks up steam today with North Carolina's Tar Heels joining Duke and FSU for a twin bill and Western Michigan moving in tomorrow.

With an eye on the weather, area baseball fans were set to watch Duke play North Carolina in the opening half of a Seminole Field doubleheader at 12:30 p.m. FSU and North Carolina were scheduled for a 3:30 second game.

SHARP PLAY

Coach Danny Litwhiler's Seminoles continued their sharp play yesterday, downing Duke for the fourth straight day, 8-2. It was FSU's ninth victory in 11 games this season.

Righthander Jim Daniel was a pitching and batting feature in yesterday's triumph. The lanky senior tamed the Blue Devils on five hits over eight innings and drove in three first-inning runs with a base-clearing double.

Scoring in the first inning for the third straight game, FSU used singles by outfielders Jimmy White and Bob Madison and first baseman Doug Walker, two walks, a hit batsman, and Daniel's two-bagger for a seven-run start.

Duke picked up single runs in the second and third innings but Daniel and John Tucker, who pitched the ninth inning, held the Blue Devils scoreless the rest of the way.

The Seminoles picked up a fifth-inning run on catcher Buddy Teagle's triple and an infield error.

FSU bagged eight hits off Duke righthander Ed. Harrison, who pitched effectively after the first inning. Walker and Dull, who batted .429 and drove in seven runs during the four games with Duke, each had two hits.

Second baseman Garry Miller had three of Duke's six hits.
