

Shortstop Otis Bibb headed up Auburn's 12-hit assault on five FSU pitchers in a 10-2 baseball victory here yesterday.

Bibb collected three hits in five trips to the plate, including a 3-run homer in the fourth inning and five runs batted in.

The victory was Auburn's second in a row over the Seminoles and brought FSU's record to 2-2 for the season.

The winning pitcher was Joe Overton. Reliever Larry Dempsey pitched hitless ball during the final five innings, though he walked seven. He struck out five, got two hits in two trips.

Auburn's big inning was the second when it batted around. Bill Breakfield singled to center and Jim Backus hit a grounder to Bill Williamson that he bobbled and threw wild to first, moving Breakfield to third.

Then Dick Seaman hit a slow bouncer to Hal Mangin at first to load the bases. Catcher Vic Svetlay singled in Breakfield and Backus. Seaman came in on a fielder's choice and Bibb singled in Svetlay.

FSU's two runs came in the third when Bob Wilcox got a base hit and Woody Woodward doubled Woodward.
