

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Florida State is the upset king of college baseball.

First the Seminoles toppled first-ranked Florida en route to the College World Series. Then they knocked off Santa Clara, new occupants of the No. 1 ranking, in the first round of the collegiate classic and last night in the second round, Florida State upended Ithaca—the only team that made it to the NCAA championships with a perfect record—by a narrow 5-4 count.

The Seminoles shook off a grand slam home run in the eighth inning that wiped out their 4-0 lead by scoring the winning run in the ninth on Mike Augustine's sacrifice fly.

Tonight Florida State faces another giantkilling task in a game against Michigan at 9:30 (EST). The Seminoles and Wolverines are the only unbeaten teams left in the double-elimination tournament.

Gritty Tom Davis, shaken by the grand slammer by Don Fazio, picked up the victory that ended Ithaca's winning streak at 13 games.

He relieved Allen Thomas in the eighth after Ithaca got two runners on base on walks. Davis walked the bases full before Fazio touched him with his liner that just cleared the left field wall.

A single followed, but Davis got the final two outs in the eighth and then retired Ithaca in order in the ninth.

It was Davis' second clutch relief performance in the World Series. Monday he saved the 5-1 victory over Santa Clara.

Hal Mangin led Florida State's attack, getting two of the Seminoles six hits and scoring three of their runs. He drove in another run with a triple. Bill Williamson also had two hits.

Florida State went ahead 2-0 in the third. Mangin led off with ot a single and got around to third th on an infield out and an error. er He scored on another error. Al h Beccaccio drove in the second run ld with a single.

ld The Seminoles added two runs ie in the third. Williamson led off s with a double to left and scored i on a tremendous triple by Man-f gin that rolled to the wall in left r center. He scored on a passed n ball.

Thomas, meanwhile, appeared invincible after he allowed two singles in the first. The tall right-hander didn't give up another hit until the seventh. At one stage he retired 15 straight batters.

He eased out of a jam in the seventh. But when he walked two batters in the eighth and got one ball on the next batter, coach Danny Litwhiler brought in Davis.

Davis compelled the walk that filled the bases and Fazio struck his homer.

In the ninth, Mangin led off with a walk and George Rountree also walked. Davis bunted and the throw to third attempting to catch Mangin was late.
Augustine then lofted a softly to medium left field near the foul line and mangin scooted in after the catch with the run that continued Florida State's amazing surge.
