OMAHA, Neb-Florida State's upset spree ran out in the College World Series last night but the Seminoles still can become national collegiate baseball campions.

Michigan now is the only team without a loss in the tourney.

All the others-Florida State, Texas and Santa Clara, have 2-1 records and can win if Michigan's dramatic chib flaters.

But free errrs proved fatal. The Seminoles had made only an two bobbles in their two previous games here. Though there were co some bright plays including the nabbing of three Michigan runners at the plate they were not enough to offset the errors. which included some unlisted mental ones.

The Seminoles cracked out six hits it would have been seven straight if Bill Williamson hadn't failed to touch second base on Buddy Teagle's liner to left-at the start of the second.

Woody Woodward, Williamson, Hal Mangin, George Rountree, Ray McShane and Mike Augustine contributed in the barrage that gave the Seminoles the seemingly healthy four-run bulge.

Even in the fourth when Michigan got three runs on pitcher Dave Roebuck's homer, the Seminoles didn't fold.

They got the three runs right back in the bottom of the inning, collecting consecutive hits by Rountree, McShane, Augustine and Bob Madison.

But thereafter Florida State could get only two more hits. Both came in the sixth with d none out. They were third-straight singles by McShane and Augustine. But when Madison drilled a hot grounder toward right field. second baseman Joe Jones darted to his left and turned the apparent single into a force out. The play kept Florida State from adding to its lead.

After Robebuck's homer off McShane, Michigan did nothing of until the sixth. Then the Wolverines scored twice, cutting Florid da State's lead to 7-5.

Michigan loaded the bases on two singles and a walk with none out in the seventh and Florida State cut down two runners at the plate. But the next batter, Harvey Chapman, slashed a single to center for two runs, tying the score 7-7.

Tommy Davis, with a victory and a save already in the series, got the Wolverines out. But in the eighth, the Wolverines scored one run after Ron-Tate doubled for his third hit and moved to third as Jim Steckley reached first on a fielder's choice.

Steckley broke for second as Davis, who suffers from a severe knee ailment, started his wind-up. The pitcher backed off the mound in the middle of his wind-up for a balk, scoring Tate.

Michigan eased out of a Flori-I catching a runner at third with two on and one out on a bunt. The Wolverines then got two insurance tallies off Butch Ferrar in the ninth.
