

OMAHA—Florida State's defense sprung a huge leak—and that more than anything knocked the Seminoles out of the College World Series.

Eight errors in last night's 11-6 elimination loss to Santa Clara, following five miscues in the 10-7 first tourney defeat by Michigan, were just too much for Florida State to overcome.

The Seminoles fell apart in the second inning against Santa Clara and they never could get back in the game despite a gritty four-run rally in the seventh.

They committed four errors in the fatal second and Santa Clara cashed them in for five runs.

Two more runs came in on two more errors in the fourth as Santa Clara upped its lead to 7-2. Another unearned run was scored on an error in the fifth.

All told, Santa Clara scored eight unearned runs.

Santa Clara got 11 hits, only one more than the Seminoles. But those errors were killers.

By the time the Seminoles got started, they trailed 11-2. It was much too late.

They scored once in the first before Santa Clara could get an out. Mike Augustine led off with a single and Bob Madison drove him in with a ringing triple, first of three runs batted in.

After Santa Clara got its five ~~gilt~~ runs in the second, Woody Woodward cracked the first Florida State home run of its four-game series. The lanky shortstop, dropped to eighth in the batting order due to a sore left shoulder, whacked the ball on the line 350 feet over the left field fence.

But that was the last Florida State hit till the sixth when Al Beccaccio singled for the first of his three straight hits. But Beccaccio didn't score.

The Seminoles made their last gasp bid—and it was far short—in the seventh. They drove out starter Mark Amrien and reliever Dan Korbel. Four runs were in before Santa Clara called on ace Bob Garibaldi to turn back the comeback.

Garibaldi came in with the bases loaded and two outs. He got George Rountree on an infield out and pitched one hit ball over the final two innings.

Coach Danny Litwhiler sent six pitchers into the game with the loss going to starter Jack Ross, who pitched 1 1-3 innings. Butch Ferar, Tom Davis, Frank Echols, Larry Hawkins and finally second baseman Beccaccio followed Ross to the mound.

Rountree started off the four-run seventh with a single and Woodward followed with a walk. Amrien got the next two batters. But then Madison drove in the two runners with his double off the left field fence.

Beccaccio tripled over the center fielder's head, scoring Madison, and came in himself when Korb, pitching to his first batter, uncorked a wild pitch.

Bill Williamson and Buddy Teagle singled and Korb was lifted after his first three pitches to Hal Mangin were balls. Garibaldi came in and completed the walk and Florida State had the bases loaded.

But Rountree, 10th batter in the inning, slapped a sharp shot hack at Garibaldi. The pitcher deflected it to second base and Rountree was tossed out.

Woodward walked to lead off the eighth, but never got past first.

Beccaccio's single opened the ninth. But Williamson struck out and Garibaldi forced Teagle to bounce into a game-ending double play.

Teagle, named earlier in the day to the All-American team at Catcher, made three throwing errors.

Michigan, victim of misfortune when an easy popup fell safely, drew the luck of a bye while Texas and Santa Clara battle it out on the edge of elimination.

It will be win or get out tonight when Texas and Santa Clara meet. The winner plays the Wolverines, last team to lose in the tourney, Saturday night. Each survivor has a 3-1 record.

Texas broke open a scoreless struggle in the seventh inning with a run on a 30-foot pop and rode to a 7-0 victory over Michigan Thursday night.
