ATHENS, Ga.—FSU's Al Beccaccio limited Georgia to five hits yesterday to set a school record of nine victories in one season as the Seminoles won 9-6.

The two teams play the final game of the two game series this afternoon.

Working with a blister on his pitching hand after the fourth inning. Beccaccio refused to leave the mound and pitched his way to the record. He gave up an unusual eight-walks in the victory.

Shortstop Woody Woodward hit a home run in the ninth in ning with one man on to ice the game for the Seminoles.

Don Weltjen, the Georgia pitcher who turned in a no hitter against Georgia Tech his last time-out, was relieved in the fifth Inning yesterday.

Larry Rakestraw hit a home run for the Bulldogs.

Florida State's record now stands at 19-9.
