

BATON ROUGE, La. — Florida State's Seminoles dropped a double-header to Louisiana State University Tigers Saturday night, losing the first one 3-2 in 10 innings, before going down 1-0 in the second outing.

Ken Schuetz was the winning pitcher in both games, coming on in relief in the ninth inning of the first game, and working the first five innings of the nightcap.

Chuck Hawkins was charged with the loss in the opener as he pitched the ninth and 10th innings for FSU. Gary Sprague with three hits in five tries, including a double, was FSU's leading hitter.

Sprague also had one of the Seminoles' two hits in the second game. Larry Brown had the other safety for FSU. Both hits were singles.

Maury Hopkins was injured in the first game when spiked as he attempted to slide into second base in the ninth inning. He wasn't hurt seriously, although he did sit out the second game.
