

MIAMI — Florida State University exploded for six runs in the ninth inning Friday to come from behind and defeat the University of Miami baseballers 9-4 in the opening game for both teams.

Florida State meets Miami again today at 1:30. Lefty Wayne Vincent is slated to pitch for Coach Fred Hatfield's Seminoles.

The Seminoles belted five hits, including a two-run double by Roy Mewbourne, in the big uprising to overcome a 4-3 Hurricane lead.

Dick Gold, a sophomore infielder who had three hits in the game, opened the rally with a single through the short-stop. Dean Duchak was hit by Miami starter Warren Brogle and Bobby Jordan was safe on a sacrifice bunt to load the bases.

Chuck Cone then singled to score Gold and tie the game 4-4, and Mewbourne doubled home Bill Spooner (running for Duchak) and Bob Canty (running for Jordan) to break the deadlock.

Florida State then added some insurance as Ed Harris bounced out, Ed Yarnell was intentionally walked to reload the sacks, Lance Hitchcock singled Cone home, Marvin Stringfellow grounded out scoring Mewbourne, and Gold got his second single of the inning scoring Yarnell to end the scoring.

Bogle was charged with the first three runs in the ninth and was the losing pitcher. He was replaced by Tom Danchier who gave up the final three runs.

Len Garrett started on the mound for Florida State and worked four and one-third innings before running into trouble. He was replaced by LaDon Boyd who pitched three and two-third innings of perfect ball to register the victory. Steve Marks hurled the final inning for FSU getting the 'Canes 1-2-3.
