MIAMI — Tony Barquin scored a run in the bottom of the 10th inning on a Florida State throwing error to lift the University of Miami Hurricanes to a 4-3 victory Friday night.

Barquin singled to lead off the 10th, and moved to second when reliever Rick Hatcher hit Scott Parsons. Pinch-hitter Mike Kutner laid down a bunt to third base that was fielded by Rick Figueroa, whose throw to first base was low.

The ball got past FSU first baseman Jeff Ledbetter, allowing Barguin to score.

The game, witnessed by a record crowd of 5,651, was Miami's 13th of the season without a loss. Florida State fell to 7-4.

The teams meet again tonight at 7:30 and on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Florida State opened the scoring in the top of the first. With two out, Mike Fuentes, playing before a hometown crowd, nailed a Neal Heaton fastball over the center-field fence for his sixth home run of the season.

Miami retaliated in the third to take a 2-1 lead on the strength of back-to-back triples and a bloop single.

With one out, Miami third baseman Mike Pagliarulo slammed a Clarence Freeman curve off the right-field fence. Mitch Seane followed with another triple, a rope to right-center that scored Pagliarulo. Miami took a 2-1 lead when Bill Wrona blooped a run-scoring single to right.

The Seminoles tied the score in the fourth. With two out, designated hitter Chris Cawthon struck out — but the ball, ruled a wild pitch, rolled back to the fence as Cawthon reached base safely. Cawthon stole second and scored on a ground-rule double by catcher Craig Ramsey.

Ramsey hit a grounder down the right-field line that appeared to be playable by first baseman Alex DeJesus. But the ball moved past DeJesus and rolled down the line, where it became lodged in the right-field fence.

Heaton went all 10 innings and finished with 14 strikeouts.
