Special to The Democrat
AUBURN, Ala. — Left-hander Clem Freeman scattered seven hits Tuesday night, pitching Florida State's baseball team to a 7-1 victory over Auburn.

The victory was Florida State's seventh in a row and boosted the Seminoles' record to 42-18. Auburn is 23-21.

The teams meet again today at 3 p.m. (EST). Ken Fischer, 5-1, is scheduled to pitch for Florida State.

Freeman, 5-2, walked two and struck out six. He was never in serious trouble after spotting the Tigers a 1-0 lead in the first inning.

Auburn took the early lead when Barry Panther doubled, moved to third on a single by John Tutt and came home on David Magentale's grounder to second.

FSU went on top in the fifth when Lionel Martinez doubled in Chris Cawthon and Rick Figueredo. Cawthon had singled and Figueredo reached on an error by second baseman Alan Mock.

The Seminoles added three runs in the sixth. Mike Fuentes reached on an error, Joe Licata singled and both scored on Jeff Ledbetter's double. Ledbetter went to third when Mike Yastrzemski flied to right and scored when Cawthon flied to center.

FSU added insurance runs in the eighth and ninth innings on doubles by Licata. The Seminole left-fielder doubled and scored on a single by Cawthon in the eighth; in the ninth he drove in Don DeLoach with a two-out double.
