FSU's Loynd confident he has the right stuff

By George Maselli

Mike Loynd was drafted in the seventh round of the amateur draft last June by the Baltimore Orioles. But when an Oriole scout came calling to try and sign him, Loynd not only turned down the money offer, he also had some things to say about it.

I told him I was going to go 15-0 this year. I told him to watch me. I also told him a few other things. You've got to be afternoon pitched Florida State past Central Florida 8-3 with 1,379 watching at Seminole Stadium.

Loynd raised his record to 9-1, allowed eight hits, two earned runs, walked one and fanned 13. His slider, as usual, was lethal. Loynd has now fanned a team-leading 103 in 70 innings. The Orioles might be having second confident," said Loynd, who Wednesday they give you, the longer they will stick afternoon pitched Florida State past with you," said Loynd, who said be has heard back from a Baltimore scout.

What Loynd was more excited about at the moment was this Florida State team that raised its record to 35-5 by sweeping two games from the Knights, 34-9. He said it was easily the best team he has played on in his four years at thoughts. "This team is just great," he said.

"The money is important, but what's "We don't really have any arguments more important is that the more money and no one is really upset about being on the bench. We play together, too.

The Seminoles showed versatility Wednesday. They rapped 14 hits, including three by Jose Marzan and two each by Bien Figueroa, Paul Sorrento and Steve Taddeo. They got a home run from Barry Blackwell. They took advantage of four Central Florida errors. They stole four bases and scored single runs in six of the first seven innings. Central Florida reached Loynd for an unearned run in the fourth inning and for solo home runs by Vince Zawaski and Scott Underwood in the ninth when the game was long gone. For a guy who struck out 13, Loynd said he felt neither strong nor comfortable at the start. He was pitching with just three days rest for his second straight start.

"For a guy who was griping about not having good stuff early in the ballgame, that was some story," said FSU Coach Mike Martin.

The Seminoles host Jacksonville tonight and Friday night before Tulane comes to town Saturday and Sunday. Loynd, a senior who will have another year of eligibility because of a medical redshirt year as a freshmen, will get another start Sunday. He can keep putting up numbers that will be hard to ignore.

He can keep making the Orioles sorry they didn't up their ante. "I went in the seventh round," said Loynd, "but I think I can go higher than that."
