

Seminoles rout Jacksonville 20-3

JACKSONVILLE — Ed Fulton drove in six runs with a pair of home runs and a single in Florida State's 20-3 rout of Jacksonville University on Tuesday night.

FSU had a season-high 23 hits and improved to 39-6 on the season. The Dolphins fell to 25-15.

Fulton got Florida State on the board with a three-run homer in the third inning.

FSU scored three more in the fourth on run-scoring hits by Luis Alicea and Bien Figueroa and Chad McClellan's sacrifice fly. FSU added three in the fifth, before blowing the game open with five in the sixth. Marzan, Fulton and Eric Mangham keyed that inning with home runs.

Jacksonville scored its runs in the sixth on pinch-hitter Mike DiRienzo's three-run homer.

FSU starter Richie Lewis, 9-1, worked six innings, allowed six hits and six walks and struck out eight.

Ed Porcelli struck out five and allowed one hit in three innings of relief to earn his first save.

Don Stanford, the first of four Jacksonville pitchers, took the loss and fell to 5-5.

The finale of the two-game series is today at 2:30 p.m. Doug Little, 6-3, will face Jacksonville's Marcus Thompson, 5-1.
