

Seminoles win two to finish trip

DEMOCRAT STAFF REPORT
HILO, Hawaii

Florida State scored five runs in the ninth inning to defeat Hawaii-Hilo 7-1 Tuesday afternoon in the completion of a game suspended by rain late Monday night.

The Seminoles (5-2) won Tuesday's regularly scheduled game 5-1 in six innings to conclude its seven-game trip to Hawaii. Hawaii-Hilo defeated FSU 4-2 Monday night in the first game of a scheduled double-header.

In the first game Tuesday, the Seminoles and Vulcans picked things up in the bottom of the sixth inning tied 1-all. FSU picked up a run in the seventh when Mickey Lopez scored on Doug Mientkiewicz's single.

The Seminoles put the game away in the ninth. Danny Kanell and Mike Martin Jr. each had two-run singles.

Phil Olson (2-0) picked up the win in relief. David Yocum started and struck out 10 in 5 $\frac{2}{3}$ innings.

Pitchers Tim Miller, Chuck Howell, Todd Harrell and Johnathan Johnson held the Vulcans to two hits in the second game. Howell (1-0) got the win, pitching 1 $\frac{2}{3}$ innings.

Third baseman Scott Zech went 2 for 3 with 2 RBI and Randy Hodges went 2 for 2 with an RBI. The Seminoles got eight hits against four Hawaii-Hilo (1-3) pitchers.

In Monday's late game, Hawaii-Hilo stole four bases in the first three innings and went on to the victory.

Aaron Izu got things going with a leadoff single in the first, then stealing second and third and scoring on Ken Coyaso's groundout.

Craig Okati and Izu had run-scoring singles in the second inning to help chase FSU starter Paul Wilson (1-1), who lasted 3 $\frac{1}{3}$ innings.
